The Shepherd Who Gives Rest

SATURDAY · DECEMBER 12
READ John 10:11-18, 27-30

Jesus calls Himself the good Shepherd. Unlike a hired hand who runs when danger comes, He lays down His life for the sheep. His people know His voice, and He knows them by name. Peace begins to grow when we remember whose care we live under. Our responsibilities matter, but they are not ours to carry apart from Him. We are never more secure because we control every outcome; we are secure because our Shepherd does not abandon His flock. As this Advent week closes, listen to His voice in Scripture. Let it speak louder than the hurried demands of the season. The Shepherd who gave His life for you is faithful to keep you.

REFLECT

What burden are you carrying as though you have no Shepherd to care for you?

PRAY

Good Shepherd, teach us to hear Your voice, follow You, and rest in Your faithful care.
