The Treasure Worth Everything

WEDNESDAY · DECEMBER 16
READ Matthew 2:1-12

The wise men traveled to honor the newborn King. Herod, by contrast, responded to the news of Jesus with fear and hostility. The same King drew worship from some and resistance from another. Christmas still asks us what we do with Jesus. Will we make Him one more decoration in a crowded life, or will we recognize Him as worthy of our allegiance? The wise men rejoiced when they reached the place where He was, and they bowed before Him. Their gifts pointed to the value they placed on the King. Our worship today is not measured by the extravagance of a present, but by hearts that treasure Christ above competing loyalties.

REFLECT

What competes most strongly with Jesus for your affection and attention?

PRAY

King Jesus, teach us to treasure You above every lesser gift.
