He Took on Flesh

READ Philippians 2:5-11

The eternal Son did not cling to His rightful glory in a way that kept Him distant from our need. He humbled Himself, took the form of a servant, and became obedient to death on a cross. The path from manger to Calvary reveals love that moves toward the undeserving at great cost. Christ's humility is both our salvation and the pattern for our relationships. In homes, friendships, workplaces, and the church, we are often tempted to defend our preferences or demand recognition. Because Jesus first served us, we can serve without needing to be the center. Humility is not pretending we have no value. It is using what we have for the good of others, as our Savior did.

REFLECT

Where could you show Christlike humility through one concrete act of service?

PRAY
