Light for Our Feet

WEDNESDAY · DECEMBER 9
READ Luke 1:67-79

When Zechariah's voice returned, he praised God for visiting and redeeming His people. His prophecy described the coming Savior as the sunrise from on high, giving light to those sitting in darkness and guiding our feet into the way of peace. Notice that God does not simply tell frightened people to find their own way out. He comes to guide them. The peace Jesus brings changes our direction as well as our standing before God. His mercy frees us to serve Him without fear. Where resentment, worry, or distraction has led your steps lately, invite the Lord to redirect you through His Word. His light is not only for the destination; it is for the next faithful step.

REFLECT

What next step of faithfulness would reflect the peace Jesus has given you?

PRAY

Lord, guide our feet in Your ways, and let Your mercy shape our choices.
