Grace of Christ Church

To Love Jesus, Love our City, Together in Community - April 26, 2026

WELCOME TO GRACE!

We're coming to the end of Peter's walk with Jesus in the flesh. As we consider the life of Peter to understand not just his confession, but also his character development, we see in the close of this chapter of Peter's life the handover of authority to "feed" and "tend". Peter is being commissioned as a shepherd, beginning a cycle of re-forming a household of the young who grow up to lead. We'll get to see that the foundation of the church is not in being fed, but in growing to feed.

Rev. Dr. Gregory Wagenfuhr

SUNDAY WORSHIP

Study Questions

Foundation 1: John Recaps Peter's Story

1. Just as Jesus' life is a recap (recapitulation) of the story of God's people, so too does Jesus recap Peter's life. What elements can you find in this story that tie into Peter's earlier story?

Foundation 2: Jesus Feeds his Disciples

2. What is the significance of feeding here? How do you see food as a central theme in the Bible?

Foundation 3: Peter is tasked with Feeding

3. What does it mean to be a shepherd in the Bible?

Implication (So what?): Peter Grew into Responsibility in the Kingdom

4. How does the story of Peter's life coming to this point of delegated authority connect with the church of today? How is the character of Peter a call for most Christians?

Application (Now What?): Are you growing into responsibility?

5. If you've followed Jesus for a long time, if he's fed you for a long time, are there places where he might be calling you to feed others?

PRAYER

Let us pray that God would reveal to us the summary of our own lives and stories, and how they have prepared us for what comes next. Who do we need to feed (literally and figuratively)?
