

Ice Breaker

When was the last time you received really good news which you just couldn't wait to share with others?

This week's message: Shift Your Mindset
Romans 10:13-15

Big Idea:

God has ordained both the salvation of his people and the proclamation of the Gospel as how He gathers them to Himself.

Discussion Questions

- ☐ Who was the first person that shared the Gospel with you? What is your earliest memory of hearing it?
- ☐ What does it mean to call upon the name of the Lord? (V.13)
- ☐ Verse 13 is an exclusive truth. What are the implications for those who do not call on His name?
- ☐ What are the essentials of the Gospel that we should know how to share?
- ☐ What fears or hesitations keep you from sharing the Gospel with those around you?
- ☐ How does realizing that your own story of salvation came through someone else's voice (or many voices) change your view of sharing your story (Vs. 14-15)?

Further Application

Per Pastor Kevin's next steps:

Who is someone who doesn't know Christ that you can be praying for?
What country will you choose to pray that the Gospel message reaches?
