

DAY 07 | HEART OF WORSHIP

Written by Kristy Uy Bico

"The whole earth will worship you and sing praise to you. They will sing praise to your name." Selah
Psalm 66:4

When you picture worship, what do you see? I see the heavenly scene in Revelation 4:8, where angels surround the throne and praise, "Holy, Holy, Holy," day and night. A heart of worship simply longs to join that eternal song.

Worship was never meant to depend on dim lights, perfect sound mixes, or flawless media production. It's not about the atmosphere we create, but the God we praise. It is our raw, unashamed gratitude to the One who rescued us from death, brought us back to life, and freed us to rejoice.

Worship isn't confined to a Sunday service. It happens while you work, when you're resting at home, as you open the Scriptures, or in moments of quiet communion with God.

"Day and night they never stop, saying, Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God, the Almighty, who was, who is, and who is to come."* (Rev. 4:8)

Today, as we fast, let's strip away every distraction and offer Him intentional, heartfelt worship.

PRAY

LORD, thank You for dying on the cross for me. You are a good Father who delights in my worship. Holy Spirit, I invite You into this time to move as You please. Silence every distraction in my mind and fill me with joy as I praise You today.

In Jesus' Name, amen.
