

BECAUSE THE BIBLE SAYS SO

Why do I teach baptism for the forgiveness of sins? Because the Bible teaches it (Acts 2:38). Why do I believe that Jesus is the Son of God? Because the Bible says it was prophesied (Isaiah 53) and confirmed (John 20:30-31). Why do I worship on the first day of the week? Because the Bible says that's when the disciples worshiped (Acts 20:7). Why do I eat the Lord's Supper on the first day of every week? Because the Bible says that's when the disciples ate it (Acts 20:7, I Cor. 16:2). Why do I believe that Christian men should lead the worship services? Because the Bible commanded it (I Tim. 2:8, I Cor. 14:34). Why do I believe that Jesus will meet the faithful departed and the faithful living in the air upon His second coming? Because the Bible says so (I Thess. 4:15-17).

Why do I believe that God created the world? Because the Bible told me so (Gen. 1:1). Why do I believe there's a place called heaven where the faithful will live for eternity? Because the Bible gave me that hope (Rev. 21:1-4). Why do I believe there's a place called hell that's prepared for the devil and his angels, where the disobedient will suffer forever? Because the Bible stated that reality (Matt. 25:41). Why do I believe that it is better to give than to receive? Because the Bible taught it (Acts 20:35). Why do I believe that only Jesus' church will be saved from eternal destruction? Because the Bible taught me that (Eph. 1:3-6).

Many men edit God's word to suit themselves. They add a little here, subtract a little there. They make the Bible conform to their politics. They make Jesus' words palatable to those who resist it.

It is not our responsibility to change His word; it's our responsibility to live by it.
