

WHAT ARE YOU BEING INVITED TO?

Wedding invitations are quite elaborate. There is the outer envelope with the calligraphed address; the inside envelope which contains the actual invitation; and then the invitation, which has more calligraphy, more names, and the date and location of the wedding. When you receive an invitation like that, you know what you're getting into. There will be music, cake, flowers, pictures, and crying. There's no mystery.

Any time you meet someone, you are also receiving an invitation, but you don't always know what you're being invited to do. For instance, sometimes people are inviting you to...

(1) Drama. Their lives are chaotic, and they want you to experience the chaos with them. Their finances are in distress, their relationships are in shambles, and their emotions are fried. So ask yourself, "Do I need more chaos in my life or less chaos?" We all answer that question the same way.

(2) Sin. Satan uses any method at his disposal to pull you away from God, and sometimes he uses new people in your life. These new friends are inviting you experience a world you've been purposefully trying to avoid as a faithful Christian. As the father said in Proverbs 1: "My son, do not walk in the way with them. Keep your feet from their path" (v. 15).

(3) Relief. This is the best invitation from a new person in your life. He or she will bring you encouragement when you're down, sympathy when you're grieving, and patience when you're doubting. They will love you unconditionally and help you grow in your faith. These are the best friends. These are the invitations we should always accept. Remember: The word "no" is not a four-letter word. Use it when it's needed. Don't accept every invitation. Protect yourself. Protect your heart.
