

GREAT PATIENCE

“The Lord is not slow about His promise, as some count slowness, but is patient toward you, not wishing for any to perish but for all to come to repentance” (II Peter 3:9).

Wouldn't it be nice if everyone was a finished product? Wouldn't it be great if every 14-year-old was as mature as he/she could possibly be today? Wouldn't it make life easier if every man were a spiritual leader in their home and church today? How much better would the world be if divorce, abuse, and neglect had been resolved in every victim today?

But the fact is, none of us is a finished product. We're all weak, broken, selfish people (to varying degrees). We're all a work-in-progress. We have lived different lives, traveled different parents, learned different things, and met the Lord at different times, if at all. The Lord knows that.

That's why Peter wrote that the Lord is patient toward you. He doesn't want you to die in sin. He wants you to repent and obey the gospel. But He also knows that it takes some time for some people to understand that they're lost. It takes time for people to mature spiritually. It's not an overnight process for most people. If we are to wear the name of Christ as Christians properly, we also need to exhibit patience with our neighbors, friends, and family.

Too often we expect others to be on the same spiritual level as ourselves, but that's not fair. Jesus encountered all sorts of people who were on different levels of spirituality, but He engaged all of them and taught them what they needed to hear.

“Yet for this reason I found mercy, so that in me as the foremost, Jesus Christ might demonstrate His perfect patience as an example for those who would believe in Him for eternal life” (I Tim. 1:16).
