

ALL BLESSINGS IN CHRIST

Rain and sunshine and abundant physical blessings God gives to both saints and sinners (Matt. 5:45). But that is not true of spiritual blessings. It is the good pleasure of the Father that his only begotten Son dispense all spiritual blessings (John 10:9, 14; 14:6; Acts 4:12). Out of Jesus there are no spiritual blessings and in Him they are all found (Eph. 1:3).

People outside of Christ have all their sins and iniquities still marked against them, but from the moment a man comes into Christ he has the promise of Him who cannot lie that every sin has been forgiven and forgotten (Heb. 8:12).

People outside of Christ do not enjoy the indwelling guest from heaven, the Spirit of God, but He comes to live with everyone who has obeyed Jesus (John 14:17; Acts 2:38; Gal. 4:6).

People outside of Christ have no right to pray, saying, “Our Father.” But those in Christ have been adopted into the Father’s family, and He is pleased for them to call him, “Abba, Father” (Gal. 4:5-7).

People outside of Christ are standing in their own light and are working against their own best interests, but everyone in Jesus has put himself into agreement with the laws of the universe and all things work together for His good (Rom. 8:28).

People outside of Christ have no advocate speaking for them at God’s side (1 John 2:1)

Just two verses of Scripture (Rom. 6:3; Gal. 3:27) tell how people go into Christ: baptism. Preceded by genuine faith and true repentance, baptism is the last commandment performed when people come into Christ. Many other commandments come later, but baptism is the dividing line between being in Christ and out of Christ.
