

Being a Community of Belonging

- For the sake of world and for Christ's honor, we are called to reflect _____ in all these settings.
- Fundamentally, our relationship with Christ, calls us to be in a community of _____; i.e. a local body of believers. (Acts 2:42, Matthew 18:20, Hebrews 10:24-25, James 5:13-14).
- Jesus is the _____; Jesus is the one who is providing for the _____ of our sins.
- Jesus has provided a _____ and _____ way.

LET US:

- Approach God with _____ and gratitude, with confidence in the faith given to us through Jesus. (v 22)
- Hold on to hope in _____, because _____ is faithful (v23)
 - Who have you _____ your hope in?

Who has or where is my hope? _____

- Encourage one another in _____, and good _____. (v24)
- Value being _____ and encourage one another often. (v25)
 - Where we put our value is _____ by where we allocate our time and our resources
- The _____ thing about church, is its people, _____ people like you and me, who need Jesus.

- The _____ thing about church, is its people, _____ people like you and me who Jesus is restoring through his love and grace.

Island Christianity

- You cannot _____ others effectively.
- Others can't _____ you.
- Things can get _____.
- In order to do ministry, we need to be _____ to each other.
- Discipleship _____ as we do life together.

Being a Community of Belonging

- We are _____ on Christ.
- The church becomes a place of _____ when we make space for each other as we walk with Jesus.
- We want to be a place for _____ and _____.

"Community only lasts when we share a deep commitment to apprenticeship under Jesus, letting God form us into people of love even when it's painful." - John Mark Comer

Acts 2:42

- We follow the teaching and leadership of _____, while being in fellowship with each other.
- We share _____ together.

James 5:13-14

- We care for those who are in _____ or in need.
- We praise the Lord _____ with songs of praise.
- We _____ for one another in the name of Jesus.
- Gratitude trains us to recognize God's goodness so we can see Him in _____ of our lives.