

Day 21 Pray for foster children who are waiting for placement. Ask God to provide safe, loving homes quickly and to comfort them in seasons of uncertainty and fear.

Day 22 Pray for birth parents who are working toward reunification with their children. Ask God to bring healing, accountability, restoration, and hope as they pursue healthy change.

Day 23 Pray for CASA volunteers, guardians ad litem, and advocates who speak on behalf of children in foster care. Ask God to give them wisdom, compassion, and perseverance.

Day 24 Pray that more men would step into mentoring and fatherly roles for children and youth who lack healthy male influences in their lives.

Day 25 Pray for babies and toddlers in foster care who have experienced neglect or trauma. Ask God to bring healing, security, and nurturing relationships into their lives.

Day 26 Pray for sibling groups in foster care. Ask God to preserve and strengthen sibling relationships and provide homes that can keep brothers and sisters together whenever possible.

Day 27 Pray for respite caregivers and support families who serve foster parents through short-term care and practical help. Ask God to strengthen and encourage them in their service.

Day 28 Pray that churches in Fremont County would become places where foster, adoptive, and biological families feel welcomed, supported, and deeply loved.

Day 29 Pray for young adults who have aged out of foster care. Ask God to provide safe housing, healthy relationships, meaningful work, and strong community support as they transition into adulthood.

Day 30 Pray that God would raise up a lasting culture of compassion and responsibility in Fremont County—one where vulnerable children and families are seen, valued, protected, and loved by the community.

PRAYER GUIDE

A MONTH OF PRAYER

FOR THE VULNERABLE CHILDREN & FAMILIES
OF FREMONT COUNTY AND THE EFFORTS TO CARE WELL FOR THEM

Day 1 Ask God to open our eyes to the reality of children in foster care within our own community. Pray that the Church would not overlook or ignore this need, but instead see it with clarity, compassion, and a willingness to respond.

Day 2 Pray that God would soften hearts across our churches—removing fear, hesitation, and indifference—and replacing them with deep love and compassion for vulnerable children.

Day 3 Ask God to clearly call individuals and families to step into fostering. Pray for courage to say “yes” and for faith to trust Him through the unknowns.

Day 4 Lift up current foster families. Pray for endurance, emotional strength, wisdom, and deep hope in Christ in the midst of challenges, uncertainty, and grief.

Day 5 Pray that the Church would fully embrace its role—not only in fostering, but also in supporting foster families through meals, prayer, relationships, encouragement, and practical help.

Day 6 Ask God to unite churches, agencies, and community leaders around this mission so that children are cared for through a strong and collaborative effort.

Day 7 Pray boldly for the vision that every child in Fremont County would have a safe, loving home. Ask God to do more than we could ask or imagine through His people.

Day 8 Pray for at-risk families. Ask that they would receive the support, resources, and encouragement needed to strengthen their families so that children would not need to enter foster care.

Day 9 Pray that God would strengthen kinship families who are raising children. Ask that they would feel equipped, supported, and encouraged in this important work.

Day 10 Pray for single foster parents. Ask God to encourage and sustain them, and pray that they would be deeply supported and cared for by the Christian community.

Day 11 Pray for the local magistrates and judges who make important decisions regarding the lives of foster children.

Day 12 Pray for children entering foster care. Ask that they would encounter safe and trustworthy adults who bring peace and stability in the midst of difficult circumstances.

Day 13 Pray for caseworkers who are often overworked and understaffed. Ask God to encourage them, and pray that they would experience the Gospel through Christian foster homes.

Day 14 Ask God to protect current foster parents from burnout. Pray that He would renew their strength, restore their joy, and remind them that their work matters deeply.

Day 15 Pray for teachers, therapists, and other support systems surrounding foster children. For compassion, understanding, patience, and wisdom as they work to meet each child’s needs.

Day 16 Pray that God would continue stirring the hearts of those considering becoming foster parents. Ask that the Holy Spirit would lead them clearly.

Day 17 Pray that youth in Fremont County would not age out of the system without families ready to welcome and support them.

Day 18 Pray for the biological children of foster parents as they navigate the joys and challenges of welcoming new children into their homes. Ask God to give them courage, understanding, compassion, and protection.

Day 19 Pray for the parents in Cañon City struggling with addictions. Ask God to bring freedom and healing so that families can be strengthened and children can be safely raised in their homes.

Day 20 Pray for healthy relationships to form between foster parents and birth parents. Ask that birth parents would experience the love of Christ through these relationships and come to know Jesus personally.
