

11: Angels On Assignment

WEEK Angels are heavenly beings created by God to serve Him and carry out His purposes. Scripture describes them as powerful messengers who act under divine command, reflecting the majesty and holiness of God. They are often depicted in God's presence, worshipping Him and executing His will. (cf. Psalm 148:2 "praise Him, all His angels; praise Him, all His heavenly host".)

Learning Objective: Knowing what Angels respond to and how to communicate to heaven when calling on their help.

Lesson Aim: Taking from a part of James 1:19, "Being quick to listen, and slow to speak", we will focus on our words and how Angels respond to our words.

God's Word Moves Angels

Psalm 103:20

- Excel in Strength
- Heed God's Word
- Listening and Moving

You are never speaking alone. When you are speaking the word, you are not alone.

Isaiah 55:11

- God's Word is a Supernatural Force
- Reveals a Divine Guarantee
- It accomplishes what He desires

Angels move by faith of the Word.

2 Corinthians 4:13

- Believe then speak
- God promises that believing isn't complete until it's declared
- What do you believe in your heart must come out of your mouth

- Faith is not just about what you accept as truth- it's about what you enforce as truth.

Your kingdom come you will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Matthew 6:10

- God promises that his Will can manifest in your life just as it is in heaven- when you align your words with his kingdom.
- You were going to bring heaven to earth.
- If it does not exist in heaven, it has no right to govern your life.

Angels are sent to minister

Hebrews 1:14

- We are aged to salvation
- They are sent to serve us
- They are agent workers assigned to us

Watch your Mouth

Proverbs 18:21

- The same instrument that can release angelic assistance can also paralyze it.
- When you confess the word of God you give angels something to work with.
- When you confess fear, defeat, sickness, and lack you give them worse than nothing. You create a contradiction in the spiritual realm that neutralizes the very help that was assigned to you.
