

Sandhya's Journal

In January, I had the joy of leading a Freshmen gal to Christ! Donna is already getting connected to a community of believers at Purdue, and is taking steps of faith!

I was honored to be the key note speaker for Cru Design Winter Conference! I spoke to about 100 South Asian students and staff about being Called into relationship, Called into light and called to serve.

I flew to Moab, Utah to sit with 12 women from all over the US, while holding sacred stories. I was invited to speak at this special retreat young women who have survived trafficking and sexual assault. I shared my story and how God has brought healing to the places

2 Corinthians 1:4 "who comforts us in all our troubles, so that we can comfort those in any trouble with the comfort we ourselves receive from God"

Pray for M, a staff gal I coach, and serves in Turkey. She's processing the trauma of the earthquake a few hours away from her.

Staff Care meets Grief Care

The picture (left) is a group of women who have walked through tremendous grief. Loss of parents, babies, friends, ambiguous loss & more. I had the opportunity to cohost a place for staff women to come and be fed with God's Word, receive care and nourishment, & find meaning in their loss. This was a dream God gave me years ago and now through a pilot weekend, I saw it come to life.

Pray for health + safety as I travel for staff care and outreach trip to London this month.

Pray for provision of new ministry partnerships.

Praise God for celebrating 16 years (March 21st) since I began walking with Jesus!!

The picture of stacked stones is the best image I can share which describes the immense goodness that I have seen and heard thus far in 2023. Getting to care for Staff near and far has become such a delight and honor. Since January, I've had the honor with sitting across from almost 50 people to listen, care, and point people to the life, death and resurrection of Jesus. My heart and ministry opportunities are overflowing in this season, and it is made possible because of your partnership, your financial support, faith and prayers, and God's kindness. THANK YOU!!
