Read together: Matthew 6:19-24

1. The Estate Sale. Have you ever cleaned out a loved one's home or been to an estate sale? What did that experience teach you about what lasts and what doesn't?

2. Bigger Barns. The farmer in Luke 12 wasn't wrong to have barns, but his barns had become his security. How can you tell the difference between wise saving and trusting in what you've saved?

3. Fear, Not Just Greed. Jesus followed the parable with "Do not be anxious" (Luke 12:22-32). What fears tend to make you hold on tightly to money or possessions? How does knowing that the Father "knows what you need" speak to those fears?

4. Grace Came First. Jesus invited Himself to Zacchaeus's house before Zacchaeus changed anything. Why does it matter that generosity flows out of grace rather than guilt or pressure? Have you seen that in your own life?

5. Two Coins. Jesus said the widow gave more than all the wealthy donors. What does that tell us about how God measures generosity? How might this encourage someone who feels they have little to give?

6. A Welcome Party. Read Luke 16:9. Who has been part of your spiritual story because someone else gave generously, maybe by funding a camp, supporting a missionary, or simply showing up? How does that change the way you see your own giving?

7. Your Heart Follows Your Treasure. Can you think of a time when giving to something such as a ministry, a person, or a cause, made you care about it more? Where do you want your heart to be heading right now?

8. This Week's Step. Look back at the four steps from the sermon: 1) read your bank statement like Jesus would, 2) take one step in giving, 3) be somebody's Walter, or 4) give something beside money. Which one is God nudging you toward? Share it with the group and how they can pray for you.

Close in Prayer: Thank God for the riches we have in Christ (2 Corinthians 8:9) and ask Him for open hands and a heart that follows the right treasure.
