

MANY HANDS MAKE LIGHT WORK

Country Store could use your help! Friday, October 9, and Saturday, October 10, from 9AM to 5PM setting up tables, racks, risers, and tarps. "Truck Day" is Sunday, October 11, from 1PM to 5PM—if you have a truck or a pair of hands to bring inventory from all of our storage facilities. We also need help setting up the departments on Monday through Thursday. Help is also needed during the sale, Friday, October 17, 8AM-5PM and Saturday, October 18, 8AM-2PM. We especially need help Saturday, October 18, from 2-5PM picking up, putting everything away, and loading the donation trucks. If you are available to help, please contact the church at 702-293-2018 or talk to any Country Store volunteer.

GRACE WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY

Ladies, mark your calendars! Grace Women's Bible study group starts Wednesday, October 7. We will have both a morning and an evening session. We will use the same Bible study lesson at both sessions, so come to whichever works best for you. Whether you are just starting to read the Bible or are deeply rooted in Scripture, there is a place for you at the table. At our first study, we will explore the fundamentals of faith and make decorative fall pumpkins to take home, which you can also use as a witnessing tool for those around you, as well as for decoration. Invite a friend and join in the conversation. Wednesday mornings: 10-11:30AM and evenings: 6-7:30PM. Hope to see you there.

New Testament Here We Come ...

Many of you started reading the Bible “cover to cover” when we started this adventure together as a church in January, but let’s face it, many of us have also thrown in the towel since then. One woman told me of the challenge she had reading the Old Testament and that she was ready for the New. Well, that day has arrived. We started reading the New Testament on September 23, and we will finish it at the end of December.

If you have stopped reading, maybe it’s time to pick it up again. There are so many interesting things that await. We will walk with Jesus as he picks his disciples, teaches, heals the sick, and even raises the dead. We will hear the questions asked of him, see his compassion, and his authority. We will follow him through his passion, death, and resurrection.

My excitement about reading the New Testament is my opportunity once again to fall in love with the person of Jesus. The word “Gospel” means “good news,” and reading each of the gospels with fresh eyes allows each of us to see things we may have missed before.

When I was in sixth grade, my Sunday School teacher, purchased the “Living Bible,” a paraphrase written by Kenneth Tyndale, for each of the students in his class. There were about six of us. Before that moment, the only Bible I had read was the King James Version my parents had given me. I did indeed memorize a few verses from that book and tried reading it occasionally, but the old English was very hard for my sixth-grade mind to process, but when I read the Living Bible for the first time, it was as if the book was opened to me afresh. Discovering how much Jesus loved me, what he accomplished for me through his death on the cross, and the hope that his resurrection brought was transformational. I grant you I was a weird kid. Not a whole lot of kids at that age are captivated with the Bible, but I had observed enough life to know that there was truth here and I was hungry for more. That Bible would take me through my junior high years with all of the turbulence associated with that time of life and I’m so grateful I had those beautiful words to surround me.

I had the chance to have lunch with that Sunday School teacher a couple of years ago. I told him that story and how grateful I am for the gift of words of life. I hope some of you, having now gone through much of the Old Testament and now the New, might have a spirit of joy as you discover things about God you have never seen before. I hope you discover the deep hope of the Gospel and the anticipation that, as the New Testament ends with the culmination of events, we are brought to a glorious eternal destiny—and that these powerful words can make all the difference in our lives. So, dust off your Chronological Bible and start reading, an adventure awaits.

MISSIONS COMMISSION

In August, we held our FISH offering for Boulder City Emergency Aid. We are pleased to announce we delivered six trunk loads and $800 in cash donations. This is an amazing donation to our community to help those in need. The Missions Commission selected the Boulder City Senior Center (food pantry) as the recipient for the Thanksgiving special offering. St. Jude's Ranch for Children and Healing Center will be the recipient for the Christmas special offering.

EMAILS FROM GRACE COMMUNITY CHURCH

Margie McCay notified the church that she had received a "phishing" email from someone posing as Pastor Steve. These emails usually involve the person sending it asking the receiver to buy gift cards for staff or church members. To avoid being scammed, look at the email address of the sender.

These are our official email addresses:

Pastor Steve - steve@bcgrace.org

Pastor Seth - seth@bcgrace.org

Napoleon Cummings - polo@bcgrace.org

Church Office - gracechurch@bcgrace.org

If you receive an email that seems odd in any way, please call the church at 702-293-2018 to verify its contents.

DEACON'S COMMISSION

October will see some changes in the handling of the offering. The offering boxes in the front and back entrances will still be available, but a collection will also be taken during the service. There will be NO FELLOWSHIP held after either service on October 11, due to Country Store set-up. A reminder that we will be "hanging the greens" (decorating the church for Christmas) Saturday, November 21, at 9AM. Please contact Margie McCay if you'd like to help. We'd like to know who we can count on, as several key people who have assisted in the past, are no longer available. Mark your calendar for Sunday, November 22, which will be Pie Sunday. This is where people bring in pies for fellowship and is a time to give thanks for the year with Thanksgiving being the following weekend. The first Sunday of Advent is November 29—anyone interested in lighting the Advent candle and reading the corresponding Scripture on Sunday mornings, let Margie McCay know.

PHOTO DIRECTORY

We are currently working on collecting everyone's photo so that we can make a photo directory. You can have someone on the church staff take your picture at any church event or service. You are also free to send us a relatively recent photo of yourself to GraceChurch@bcgrace.org or bring one in to the church office to be scanned. We are willing to do house calls if needed or desired. While you are at it, please make sure to update all of your contact information. We are discovering many landlines that are no longer in service listed in our current directory.
