Privacy Policy & SMS Terms of Service

Privacy Policy

Calvary Worship Center respects the privacy of individuals who interact with our church, ministries, website, and staff. This Privacy Policy explains the types of personal information we may collect, how we use that information, and when it may be shared.

Information We May Collect

- Name and contact information, such as phone number, email address, and mailing address, when voluntarily provided.
- Information submitted through website forms, ministry registrations, event registrations, prayer requests, inquiries, or other communications.
- Information provided during communications with church staff, including SMS/text messages.
- Basic website and technical information that may be collected automatically by the website or its service providers.

How We Use Personal Information

- To respond to questions, requests, prayer requests, and other inquiries.
- To communicate about church services, ministry activities, events, scheduling, and requested information.
- To provide pastoral, ministry, administrative, and congregational support.
- To operate and improve church communications, programs, services, and the website.
- To comply with applicable legal, administrative, or security requirements.

Sharing of Personal Information

Calvary Worship Center does not sell personal information. Personal information may be shared with staff, ministry personnel, or service providers when reasonably necessary to provide church services, operate our communications and website, or fulfill a request. Information may also be disclosed when required by law or when reasonably necessary to protect the rights, safety, or security of Calvary Worship Center or others.

SMS consent is not shared with third parties or affiliates for marketing or promotional purposes.
