We have had a very busy, but incredible month. The Challenge Race had over 200 participants and raised over $8,500 for the Scholarship Fund. We want to thank McCabe White and his crew for all the effort they put in organizing the race!!

Over spring break we had four different youth groups come and help out around Camp. We are SO thankful to Peaks Mill, Ninevah, Mackville & Willisburg youth groups for helping prep trails for the Challenge Race, cleanup all the brush at wilderness and primitive, clean cabins, and mulch all the landscape. The kids that were here worked so hard, and we are so grateful to have had them here! Cornerstone Christian also brought a group out and helped us stain the stage, dock, and both Gaga pits. We are so thankful for their help.

After the monsoon of '25, we enjoyed a very beautiful Hike Day this year. There were over 400 people here and we raised over $32,000!!! Thank you to Julie Dickerson for organizing Hike Day and all the volunteers that made everything run so smoothly. Thank you to everyone that raised money and brought Bake Sale items!!! Mark your calendars for next year... May 1st, 2027!!!

We invite any adoptive or foster family to come join us on May 16th for Connect Day!!

Then it is time for SUMMER CAMP!!!!!! Be sure to register the kids in your life for summer camp.

We have passed all the mechanical inspections and are ready for insulation on the New Dorm!! Financially, we are under $31,000 needed to fully fund the building of the New Dorm!!!

Thank you for your continued support of Camp Calvary! Please be in prayer for summer camp,
