

[illegible]

In today's sermon, we see Jesus tirelessly traveling throughout Galilee, preaching the gospel, teaching God's Word, and healing those in need. Even with His compassion and relentless ministry, He recognized that the needs of the multitude exceed what He and His disciples can accomplish alone. Looking on the crowds as a sheep without a shepherd, Jesus is moved with deep compassion and shown that more people are needed to care for both their spiritual and physical needs.

Christians are being challenged to share Christ's compassion for the unreached and to pray earnestly for God to send more laborers into His harvest fields.
