The New Normal… Walking in the Presence and Power of Jesus

Walking in the Light with the Indwelling Christ

Small Group Study Questions for the week of Nov 7-14

GETTING STARTED

When you think about a comfortable atmosphere, like in your living room or family room, what is it like? Do you like a room that's more subdued and lower light levels? Or are you the type to walk into the room, open the drapes, or the blinds and turn the lights on right away? Maybe even open a window for fresh air?

DIGGING DEEP

1. What can we learn about light, and the nature of light in Genesis 1: 1–5?

2. Read Psalm 104:1-2, James 1:17, and Revelation 22:5, what do these verses teach us about the character of God and light?

3. How can we experience the blessing of God in our lives according to Psalm 89:15? What does that practically look like today?

4. Read Exodus 13: 20–22, and 33:7–17, how does God reveal himself to the Israelites according to these verses?

5. What similarities do we see in John 1:4–9 and the earlier verses we read in the Old Testament? What differences?

6. There are some conditional promises in 1 John 1:7, what are they and give an example of what that might look like today?

7. What do you think most hinders followers of Christ from walking in the light today?

8. According to Galatians 2:20, and 2 Corinthians 5:14–15, what are the long-term benefits of living out the truth in these verses?

9. Take a few minutes to share about a recent time where you strongly sensed you were "Walking in the Light," throughout your day. What do you think it was that encouraged that to happen?

A MATTER OF PRAYER

After reading Psalm 89:15, take time in your group to pray that for one another, that the Lord would help us to live this out in the coming week. Also consider as a group committing this verse to memory this week.
