The Sojourner's Hope, Part 2

The life of a sojourner. A series through 1 Peter.

Oct 18, 2026

1 Peter 1:3-5, "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Because of his great mercy he has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead and into an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you. You are being guarded by God's power through faith for a salvation that is ready to be revealed in the last time."

REVIEW last week:

Summary

What does it mean to have a living hope in a world that seems to offer so little permanence? In 1 Peter 1:3-9, we are invited into one of the most encouraging truths a believer can hold onto: that our hope is not a wishful longing but a vibrant, unshakeable reality grounded in the resurrection of Jesus Christ. Because Christ is alive, our hope is alive. This is not the hope of a dead religion or a fading philosophy. It is a hope that breathes, that sustains, and that points us toward something so magnificent it defies our ability to fully comprehend it. The message draws us to consider two staggering future realities that belong to every believer: an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for us, and a salvation that is being guarded by the very power of God until its final and complete revelation.

Key Points

- Believers are being guarded by the power of God through faith for a salvation that will be fully and finally revealed at the last time
- Christians are joint heirs with Christ, meaning they will share in His glory, rule and reign with Him, and receive from the Father all that belongs to the Son
- The unbeliever has no future hope, and whatever good is experienced in this life is the only good they will ever know for all of eternity
- The Word of God is imperishable and will stand forever, guaranteeing that every promise God has made will be fulfilled
- Christians are called to use every area of life, including work, marriage, family, and finances, for the glory of God and the advancement of His kingdom

Key Passages of Scripture:

- 1 Corinthians 15:12-24 (the resurrection as the foundation of Christian hope)
- Romans 8:16-25 (joint heirs with Christ; creation groaning for redemption)
- John 5:24 (passing from death to life)
- John 11:25-26 (Jesus as the resurrection and the life)
- John 14:19 (because Christ lives, believers also live)
- Proverbs 24:19-20 (the wicked have no future)gospel)
- 1 Peter 1:23-25 (born again through the imperishable Word of God)
- 1 Timothy 1:17 (God as immortal and eternal)
