Christian Lindbeck

Christian has a Bachelor of Arts in Religion and Philosophy from Northwest University. He obtained his Master of Theology in 2002 and his Master of Divinity in 2007, both from Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary in Massachusetts. He is currently working on a Doctor of Ministry in Strategic Leadership at Liberty University. Christian has over 25 years of ministry experience in various settings across the Pacific Northwest. At Venture Church, he leads the Kingdom Builders initiative and oversees Venture Locations, including their pastors and ministries. His work focuses on fostering global partnerships, developing future leaders, and ensuring the success of Venture's multi-site strategy.

In his free time, Christian enjoys hiking, traveling, cooking, trying new restaurants, and reading.
