God Rescued Me From a Broken Life without Jesus

Growing up young, life was pretty carefree. Dad worked a lot, mom did most of the childcare stuff, but dad would be around in the evenings, to be with us kids. He did his best.

Life to me was going to school, playing sports, but there was no real communication about life or God. I now see, by taking the Journey class through the church, how broken I was. Praise be to God, He was with me the whole time.

So it goes, it took me 50 some years for me to have eyes to see. The bad behavior and treatment of people I loved, failed marriages, experimenting with drugs and alcohol, and porn. I guess what I am saying is I thought life was about doing what you want, when you want, and don't worry about the repercussions of your actions. What I am telling you is that my actions told me; that I can't do it alone, but turning to having a relationship with God and Jesus is where it's at!

He rescued me. He has taken a weight off my shoulders by making me a better person. Serving at the church, helping people, and protecting me from cancer. Like in Psalm 91:14-16, "The Lord says, "I will rescue those who love me. I will protect those who trust in my name. When they call on me, I will answer; I will be with them in trouble. I will rescue and honor them. I will reward them with a long life and give them my salvation.""

This is not a flip of a light switch, it's an ongoing process. Even though I struggle, I know my God is with me and I can call on Him at any time.
