THE EVANGELIST

The hand device to remember the APEST roles likens the Evangelist to the middle finger as one that reaches that farthest and is sometimes offensive or an attention getter. How might this nature benefit the church?

Luke records Jesus' parables related to the purpose of an evangelist in Luke 15:7, 15:10, & 15:32. What is the common theme in these Scriptures? What does this mean for the evangelist?

APEST

Lesson: The Evangelist

Read Luke 19:9-10 (NIV) and see Jesus functioning as an evangelist. From this verse and the commentary in the Evangelist Video describe below what an evangelist is.

The evangelist is the church's inbuilt _____ to reach specific groups.

Beyond the above function, the Evangelist provides other assets to the church as a whole. List three of the five mentioned in the video content.

Alan Hirsh, a collaborator on the APEST Personal Vocational Assessment explains that, "Evangelists are those whose essential task is getting the message out and getting a positive response from the audience."

As you understand the role of an evangelist, what might be some roles, jobs, careers, or experiences that may suit those with this function well.
