Matthew 14:13-21: Martin Luther penned these wonderful words: “I have held many things in my hands, and I have lost them all, but whatever I’ve placed in God’s hands, that I still possess.” Often, when we consider evangelism, we think about going out to hand people pamphlets and other materials. But maybe we have it all wrong. Maybe the best evangelism is putting as many people in God’s hands as possible. Who can you place in God’s hands today? The disciples realized that in God’s hands, food was multiplied. This is true of people in God’s Kingdom as well. Take time - in prayer, in conversation, and maybe even in bringing someone to worship next Sunday - but take the time to put the valuable resource of people in God’s hands - knowing that in His hands they will never be lost again.

For Life

Our God is the Lord and Giver of life! “Come ... incline your ear to me, and come to me; hear, that your soul may live” (Isaiah 55:3)! “He who gives food to all flesh, for His steadfast love endures forever” (Psalm 136:25) also gives nourishment to every born and pre-born life He knits together fearfully and wonderfully. Even while I “have great sorrow and unceasing anguish in my heart” (Romans 9:2) over the spiritually lost and the violence of abortion and euthanasia, we continue to eat and be satisfied (Matthew 14:20) from Jesus Christ, our Bread of Life.

TODAY/TOMORROW/FOREVER

In putting together a Christian estate plan, initiation of your efforts is the most difficult part. Often, we put off estate planning because we do not want to confront our fear of dying. Jesus said in John 11, “I am the Resurrection and the Life. Whoever believes in me will live, even though he dies. And whoever lives and believes in me will by no means die forever.” You can initiate your plans knowing full well that in Jesus, death has been conquered. Contact the church office for information.
