OUR VISION

Our greatest desire is to know Christ and be conformed to His image by the power of the Holy Spirit. We are not a denominational church, nor are we opposed to denominations, as such. We are opposed only to the emphasis of non-biblical teachings that divides the Body of Christ. We believe the true basis of Christian fellowship is God's love, which is greater than our differences. Without His love, we have no right to say we are Christians.

WE BELIEVE WORSHIP OF GOD SHOULD BE SPIRITUAL

Therefore we remain flexible so the Holy Spirit may direct worship.

WE BELIEVE WORSHIP OF GOD SHOULD BE INSPIRATIONAL

Therefore, we give a special place to music in our worship.

WE BELIEVE WORSHIP OF GOD SHOULD BE INTELLIGENT

Therefore in our services, we emphasize Bible teaching so God may instruct us how He should be worshiped.

WE BELIEVE WORSHIP OF GOD SHOULD BE FRUITFUL

Therefore, we look for His love in our lives as the greatest evidence that we are truly worshipping Him.

WE WELCOME OUR GUESTS!

Thank you for joining us this morning! We trust you will be blessed in your time with us today and we invite you to return to worship with us again and again.

Although we do not take a formal offering (2 Cor 9:7), if you would like to give, there are offering boxes in the back of the sanctuary or you may give online at ccleb.com. Do not feel obligated. As our honored guest, your presence is what is important.

CHAPLAIN

Richard Nesbitt has been part of the CCLeb family since 2013. Shortly after he began attending, he jumped into serving as an usher and as a member of both the security and prayer teams. Richard is a U.S. Army veteran, having served as a paratrooper, and spent 23 years serving his community as a Pennsylvania State Trooper. He and his wife, Sheila, have been married since 1985 and have two children. After completing his chaplaincy courses through Calvary Chapel Philadelphia, Richard now serves as a Chaplain for the Lebanon City Police Department.

"God showed how much he loved us by sending his one and only Son into the world so that we might have eternal life through him. This is real love—not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as a sacrifice to take away our sins." 1 John 4:9-10

KEITH ZIMMERMAN

ELDER

My name is Keith Zimmerman. My wife, Anna, and I have six children, a daughter-in-law, and one grandchild, and we love our family very much. Our family has been shaped by both the joys and challenges of family life, including adoption, and those experiences have given me a deep respect for the importance of family and the many different ways God builds one.

I came to Jesus at a very young age. As I look back over nearly forty years of following Him, I increasingly recognize how much of my life has depended on the guidance of the Holy Spirit and an abundance of God's grace. There are many pitfalls I avoided without fully understanding at the time how close I may have been to taking a very different path. Sometimes it's only looking back that we realize the immeasurable amount of grace God has given us – saving us from so much destruction in our lives. Looking ahead, I know I will need that same grace, guidance, and wisdom, and I am resolved to keep seeking His will and submitting to His direction.

My family and I have attended Calvary Chapel Lebanon since 2014, where I now serve in a part-time role as Executive Director. A desire to understand God's Word more fully has kept me learning and taking classes over the years. The more I have learned, the more I have wanted to serve the church—but with a growing awareness that I do not have the wisdom or ability to do that well on my own. James 1:5 reminds us to ask God for wisdom, trusting that He gives generously. My desire is to serve with humility and dependence on Him, encouraging others and helping people grow in their own walk with Christ.
