

OUR VISION

Our greatest desire is to know Christ and be conformed to His image by the power of the Holy Spirit. We are not a denominational church, nor are we opposed to denominations, as such. We are opposed only to the emphasis of non-biblical teachings that divides the Body of Christ. We believe the true basis of Christian fellowship is God's love, which is greater than our differences. Without His love, we have no right to say we are Christians.

WE BELIEVE WORSHIP OF GOD SHOULD BE SPIRITUAL

Therefore we remain flexible so the Holy Spirit may direct worship.

WE BELIEVE WORSHIP OF GOD SHOULD BE INSPIRATIONAL

Therefore, we give a special place to music in our worship.

WE BELIEVE WORSHIP OF GOD SHOULD BE INTELLIGENT

Therefore in our services, we emphasize Bible teaching so God may instruct us how He should be worshiped.

WE BELIEVE WORSHIP OF GOD SHOULD BE FRUITFUL

Therefore, we look for His love in our lives as the greatest evidence that we are truly worshipping Him.

WE WELCOME OUR GUESTS!

Thank you for joining us this morning! We trust you will be blessed in your time with us today and we invite you to return to worship with us again and again.

Although we do not take a formal offering (2 Cor 9:7), if you would like to give, there are offering boxes in the back of the sanctuary or you may give online at ccleb.com. Do not feel obligated. As our honored guest, your presence is what is important.

Rebeca Karnish

My name is Rebeca and I am 38 years old and I grew up in the Poconos. My brother and I grew up in a broken family. At the age of 8 years old we were put into foster care. A first time foster mom heard about our case and took us both on. After a year of visiting our birth mother she decided not to take us back and started a new family with my half sister who was born that day. Even though this happened I was happy with my foster parents and they ended up adopting us. They gave us a wonderful life and introduced us to a Methodist church where I first put my trust in the Lord.

In my early twenties I was in an abusive relationship and slowly but surely he manipulated me into becoming an atheist. Over the nine years together he secluded me from my family and friends. In the midst of all the chaos I ended up crying out to the Lord. This is when Jesus opened a door and I was released from the lie of the enemy. It would still be a while before I would make it to the Women's Shelter but I finally came to the end of myself. When He allowed me to make one bad choice after another and I realized I could not control my own life.

The safety, love, kindness of the leaders and residents helped me come out of my shell. Being washed by His Word I realized I was a sinner and I needed him to save me so I gave my life to him during a U-turn service. A few months later I was baptized and how freeing that moment was leaving the dead girl behind. I was already a new creation, but now I was publicly making a stand for my faith in my savior. There have been trials, but each one has brought me closer to him. I've grasped a better, deeper, and more intimate knowledge of his character. His truth gives me strength when I'm being shot by the arrows of the enemy. I'm no longer alone. My church family surrounds me. I still don't have contact with my adopted family, but I know the Lord will answer my prayer, for now I'm grateful for those here he has placed in my life. I don't ever want to go back.

My life verses are: Luke 16:10 If you are faithful in little things, you will be faithful in large ones. But if you are dishonest in little things, you won't be honest with greater responsibilities" and Proverbs 3:5-6 "Trust in the LORD with all your heart, And lean not on your own understanding; In all your ways acknowledge Him, And He shall direct your paths."
