

OUR VISION

Our greatest desire is to know Christ and be conformed to His image by the power of the Holy Spirit. We are not a denominational church, nor are we opposed to denominations, as such. We are opposed only to the emphasis of non-biblical teachings that divides the Body of Christ. We believe the true basis of Christian fellowship is God's love, which is greater than our differences. Without His love, we have no right to say we are Christians.

WE BELIEVE WORSHIP OF GOD SHOULD BE SPIRITUAL

Therefore we remain flexible so the Holy Spirit may direct worship.

WE BELIEVE WORSHIP OF GOD SHOULD BE INSPIRATIONAL

Therefore, we give a special place to music in our worship.

WE BELIEVE WORSHIP OF GOD SHOULD BE INTELLIGENT

Therefore in our services, we emphasize Bible teaching so God may instruct us how He should be worshiped.

WE BELIEVE WORSHIP OF GOD SHOULD BE FRUITFUL

Therefore, we look for His love in our lives as the greatest evidence that we are truly worshipping Him.

WE WELCOME OUR GUESTS!

Thank you for joining us this morning! We trust you will be blessed in your time with us today and we invite you to return to worship with us again and again.

Although we do not take a formal offering (2 Cor 9:7), if you would like to give, there are offering boxes in the back of the sanctuary or you may give online at ccleb.com. Do not feel obligated. As our honored guest, your presence is what is important.

SARAH REID

School of Ministry
Graduate

Sarah's journey has been marked by an ongoing and very real battle between the flesh and the Spirit. For a season, she wrestled deeply with surrender, learning what it truly meant to lay her will down and trust the Lord with every part of her life. In His faithfulness, God placed Sarah in situations where she was required to make intentional choices: choosing obedience, choosing truth, and choosing Him, even when it was difficult.

Through each of these moments, the Lord patiently refined her heart. As Sarah continued to surrender, she began to experience true transformation. Her relationships grew healthier, her faith deepened, and she blossomed spiritually as she aligned her life with God's will. What once felt like struggle became a place of growth and testimony to God's grace.

Out of this journey, the Lord has revealed and strengthened Sarah's gift of prayer and intercession. She carries a deep burden for others and faithfully seeks the heart of God on their behalf. Sarah's life is a beautiful reflection of what God can do when we surrender fully to Him.

Sarah will be moving across the street to our harvest house and continue in her passion for caregiving with her full time job at "Help at Home".

"Confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The earnest prayer of a righteous person has great power and produces wonderful results." — James 5:16

CARRIE CAPUTO

Carrie first came to the Women's Shelter in 2021 during a season where the Lord invited her into rest, healing, and a deeper relationship with Him. During this time, Carrie faithfully chose to sit at the feet of Jesus, allowing Him to minister to her heart, strengthen her faith, and shape her identity in Him.

As Carrie remained steady in His presence, the Lord began to gently prepare her for what was next. At the beginning of 2025, He clearly called her into service through our School of Ministry serving the ladies of the Women's Shelter, marking a new season of obedience and growth. Even while navigating ongoing various battles, Carrie has continued to press into the Lord, choosing faith, perseverance, and trust in Him each day.

Carrie has also been such a gift to our community in the ways she serves—always willing, eager to help, and quick to say "yes" to the Lord. She has a remarkable ability to bring joy wherever she is, especially through her humor. Carrie can make an entire room laugh, lift the spirits of others, and remind us of the goodness of God even in difficult seasons.

Carrie has faithfully served at The Jubilee for several years and will continue to do so while living at the Door of Hope. Her life is a testimony to God's sustaining grace and the fruit that comes from remaining faithful, both in the quiet seasons and in the calling to serve.

"And now, dear brothers and sisters, one final thing. Fix your thoughts on what is true, and honorable, and right, and pure, and lovely, and admirable. Think about things that are excellent and worthy of praise. Keep putting into practice all you learned and received from me--everything you heard from me and saw me doing. Then the God of peace will be with you." — Philippians 4:8-9

DORI CRAPPS

School of Ministry
Graduate

Dori's journey is a beautiful reflection of faithful obedience and sacrificial service. She has consistently served the Lord and the women of the Women's Shelter with humility and perseverance, even in seasons when it required everything she had to give. Through it all, Dori has remained steadfast, trusting God with both her strength and her surrender.

Dori carries a true servant's heart. She serves willingly and faithfully, often behind the scenes, meeting needs without seeking recognition or praise. Whether through acts of compassion, consistency, or simply showing up day after day, Dori reflects the love of Christ in both word and action. Her willingness to serve in any capacity has deeply impacted the lives of the women around her.

While serving here, Dori has entrusted her two daughters and her elderly parents in Mississippi into the Lord's loving care. Though separated by distance, she continues to walk out her calling with faith, believing that God is faithful to watch over those she loves as she serves where He has placed her.

Following graduation, Dori will continue to serve at the Women's Shelter as an intern for an additional year. Her life is a testimony to wholehearted devotion, trust in God's provision, and the quiet strength that flows from obedience to His call.

"But as for you, be strong and courageous for your work will be rewarded"
2 Chronicles 15:7
