OUR VISION

Our greatest desire is to know Christ and be conformed to His image by the power of the Holy Spirit. We are not a denominational church, nor are we opposed to denominations, as such. We are opposed only to the emphasis of non-biblical teachings that divides the Body of Christ. We believe the true basis of Christian fellowship is God's love, which is greater than our differences. Without His love, we have no right to say we are Christians.

WE BELIEVE WORSHIP OF GOD SHOULD BE SPIRITUAL

Therefore we remain flexible so the Holy Spirit may direct worship.

WE BELIEVE WORSHIP OF GOD SHOULD BE INSPIRATIONAL

Therefore, we give a special place to music in our worship.

WE BELIEVE WORSHIP OF GOD SHOULD BE INTELLIGENT

Therefore in our services, we emphasize Bible teaching so God may instruct us how He should be worshiped.

WE BELIEVE WORSHIP OF GOD SHOULD BE FRUITFUL

Therefore, we look for His love in our lives as the greatest evidence that we are truly worshiping Him.

WE WELCOME OUR GUESTS!

Thank you for joining us this morning! We trust you will be blessed in your time with us today and we invite you to return to worship with us again and again.

Although we do not take a formal offering (2 Cor 9:7), if you would like to give, there are offering boxes in the back of the sanctuary or you may give online at ccleb.com. Do not feel obligated. As our honored guest, your presence is what is important.

WHAT IS THE STEALTH RUN?

From Pastor Thom Keller

A LEGACY OF QUIET GIVING

During the Great Depression my grandfather began a simple but powerful tradition. On Christmas Eve, he would quietly deliver gifts to families who otherwise faced a bleak holiday. He would leave them on the porch for the children to discover, then slip away unseen. Throughout the year, he also delivered groceries in secret–never seeking recognition, only desiring to share the love of Jesus.

WHY WE GIVE IN SECRET

Jesus taught us that true generosity is done quietly: "Do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing." (Matthew 6:3). That's the heart of the Stealth Run. Each gift is delivered anonymously, tagged only with these words:

"From Jesus, with love."

We believe the greatest kind of giving is the kind that expects nothing in return–pointing all glory back to Him.

HOW YOU CAN JOIN IN

The Stealth Run continues this legacy today by collecting gifts for children who might otherwise face a bleak Christmas. There are three ways to help this ministry: purchase gifts for kids, help with gift picking and wrapping, or help deliver those gifts in secret on Christmas Eve blessing families with joy, hope, and the love of Christ.

When you join the Stealth Run, you become part of this beautiful story of hidden generosity–quietly serving, faithfully giving, and letting Jesus be seen above all.

"But when you give to someone in need, don't let your left hand know what your right hand is doing. Give your gifts in private, and your Father, who sees everything, will reward you." – Matthew 6:3-4

WHAT TO EXPECT

- After the Christmas Eve service, everyone gathers at the church to receive gifts to be delivered.
- Families then set out–by car or on foot–to the homes where the children's gifts are waiting to be shared.
- When you arrive, the fun begins! Stealthily make your way to the door, quietly place the gifts on the porch or doorstep, ring the bell (or knock), and then run like crazy so you won't be caught!
- The adults in the home will already know that gifts are coming that evening, so someone will be there to bring them inside.
- If no one happens to be home, simply try again a little later or return the gifts to the church.
- We encourage you to bring your children along. There's something special about kids helping deliver gifts to other kids–especially knowing those gifts are given in Jesus' name. It's a beautiful way to spark a spirit of generosity in your own child or grandchild.

TIMELINE

STARTING OCT 4	Register at ccleb.com/join or call 717.273.5633
NOVEMBER 1	Stealth Run Team Hands Out Names
NOVEMBER 29	Registration Closes
DECEMBER 13	Deadline to Return Gifts

Catherine Blonder

Women's Shelter on Willow

COLOSSIANS 2:6-7

Graduate

This is my Journey of Faith, healing and new beginnings. My name is Catherine Blonder, but everyone calls me Kate. And yes, that's Kate with a K!

I grew up in Collingswood, New Jersey, surrounded by family, faith, and a community where everyone knew one another. I moved to Florida in the early 1970s and have called it home ever since.

Jesus has always been part of my life, but that doesn't mean I've always listened to Him.

After retiring around age 72, I began drinking daily, something I had never done before. I was carrying years of hurt, resentment, and disappointment. Eventually, my choices contributed to losing my financial stability and my home.

When I arrived at WSoW, I was broken, angry, and struggling to understand how my life had reached this point. But God had other plans.

Through Scripture, guidance, and love, I learned something important: Taking care of myself isn't selfish. It's necessary. I had spent my life putting others first, forgetting that I mattered, too.

I also learned to stop blaming others and take responsibility for my choices.

Today, at 77 years young, I stand before you stronger, wiser, and grateful for another beginning.

Philippians 3:13–14 reminds us:
"Forgetting the past and looking forward to what lies ahead, I press on to reach the end of the race and receive the heavenly prize for which God, through Christ Jesus, is calling us."

I may be 77, but my race isn't over. God isn't finished with me yet.

Thank you to everyone at WSoW for helping me rediscover my strength and faith.

Today, I choose forgiveness. I choose peace. I choose to move forward. And I choose me.

Thank you, Jesus, for never giving up on me.
