What We're Studying

KIDS' CHURCH - ANSWERS IN GENESIS

June 7th - Malachi Prophecies of Jesus

Malachi delivered the Lord's rebuke to the priests in Israel because they were offering imperfect animals to the Lord. Malachi was also given a message of hope, pointing forward to the coming Messiah and the messenger who would prepare the way for him.

June 14th - 400 Years of Waiting

Four hundred years would pass before Malachi's prophecy was fulfilled. During these "silent" years, God did not speak to his people through prophets, but he was sovereignly directing events to prepare the world for the coming of Jesus. The Greek and Roman empires significantly influenced the political and cultural climate of Israel, leading to the time of Jesus' arrival.

June 21st - Unit Review

Reviewing the following lessons: Experiencing God's Glory, God's New Covenant, Zerubbabel Returns to Israel, Esther Trusts God, Ezra Teaches the Law, Nehemiah Rebuilds the Walls, Nehemiah Governs Jerusalem, Malachi Prophecies of Jesus, and 400 Years of Waiting.

June 28th - The Messiah Has Come

The Old Testament taught that the Messiah was coming, and the New Testament proclaims that he has come. Without the Old Testament, we cannot understand and appreciate the fullness of God's plan for redemption. God promised a Savior to Adam and Eve, and after 4,000 years, God revealed that Savior in the person of Jesus.
