Different Problems: Same Answers
God's Word Never Changes Because God Never Changes

So much is happening in our world and in our personal lives. We hear about wars, violence, and lives being lost. Families are facing rising costs and financial pressure. People are dealing with sickness, persecution, uncertainty, and grief following the transition of a loved one.

Our problems may be different, but our answers remain the same: God's Word.

God does not give us a different character for every crisis. He is faithful in every circumstance. The same God who sustains us through grief strengthens us in weakness, guides us through uncertainty, and provides for us in times of need.

Whatever we face, His Word teaches us how to respond: Trust Him, Count It All Joy, Live In His Will, Wait On Him, Call On Him, And Live By His Word.

As we pray, we will bring our specific concerns before God and obey His Word for our response. We can be honest about our pain, our questions, and our needs while trusting God.
