Bringing the Gospel Behind Prison Walls

Dear Fellow Laborers,

July-September 2027

First of all, as always, we want to thank the Lord for allowing us to take part in His work. Next, we would like to thank all of you who labor with us. Whether by supporting us financially, or by praying for us. We sincerely thank you. We could not do this without you. We are humbled by the kindness and generosity of God's people.

You will notice we have changed our letterhead. We realize it was difficult to read, and for those of you who printed our letters out it took a lot of blue ink. We hope the new look will be easier to read and print. We also updated our prayer cards. If you would like us to send you some updated prayer cards reach out and we can get some to you.

Our regular services have been going well in both the men's and ladies' facilities. We are still praying for a larger space at our South Georgia facility so that more ladies can attend. We have, for now, changed our Saturday night Bible study group to a church service so more ladies have a chance to attend. We are trusting God for big things in that place in the upcoming year.

We were recently given access to a new facility in Tennessee, and God is already moving in that place. We only have access to the lock down units as of now; so we do what I call "pie flap evangelism". We speak to the inmates one door at a time through the slot in the door they use to slide the food trays into the cells. This is a slow process, but we have already seen three men born again!

One more praise report; God has raised up more laborers. Brother Ben Carver from our home church has been helping us at our Floyd County Prison for the last six months. God has recently opened the door For Brother Ben to start a discipleship class at the work release center to help prepare men getting ready to go home.

Please continue to pray for us as we travel. We ask that you pray for God to send godly staff to these facilities as they are understaffed almost everywhere. We thank you again and look forward to what the Lord does next!
