Gibbs Chronicles – Quarter 1 (2026)

Dear praying and supporting friends,

As we step into another year of ministry, we do so with grateful hearts and great expectations. The Lord has opened doors for us to invest in multiple countries, and we are continually reminded that every opportunity is a gift of His grace. We praise Him for allowing us to be part of what He is doing around the world—strengthening His servants, advancing the Gospel, and building His Church in places where the work is often unseen and challenging.

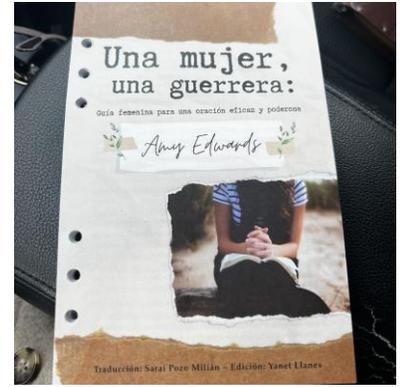

Today, we are heading to Cuba for our annual pastors' conference and evangelistic outreach. This trip is always a highlight of the year for the Cuban pastors and missionaries we serve. Despite the difficulties they face, they are pressing forward with joy and anticipation, preparing their hearts and their churches for what God will do. Their faith and perseverance continue to deeply encourage us.

We ask that you stand with us in prayer for this trip. We are thankful that our religious visas were approved and delivered, enabling us to be able to preach and teach as we need. We trust the Lord completely, yet we know that “the effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much” (James 5:16). Please pray for smooth travel, and for protection as we pass through immigration and customs.

We also rejoice, especially for a project the Lord has placed on Bethany’s heart. She has been diligently preparing to bring “Prayerbooking”—a unique blend of prayer journaling and scrapbooking developed by Amy Edwards of Living Beyond Ministries—to the ladies in Cuba. We praise the Lord for faithfully providing every resource needed to complete this project. These women serve tirelessly alongside their husbands, families, and churches, often with little recognition. We are grateful for the opportunity to encourage them with a tool that will help deepen their prayer lives and remind them that they are seen, valued, and loved.

Thank you for walking with us through your prayers and faithful support. As our departure draws near, would you commit to praying specifically for open doors, protection, spiritual fruit, and renewed strength for the pastors, missionaries, and their families? Together, we trust that God will do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think—according to His perfect will and for His glory.
