

Dear Praying Friends and Family,

Missions is alot like military warfare. Missionaries are sent out across the world to “WIN” the lost, baptize them, and disciple them. The saved are organized into local churches. These are kind of like beach heads in enemy territory. For those not familiar with the term, a beachhead is a secured, temporary position established by an invading military force on a hostile shore. This world is not our home. Soon, and very soon churches will be raptured out of this hostile world. But until then we are marching forward for Christ setting the captives free! Let me tell you about some captives that have been set free recently.

Every Saturday our church goes out and knocks on doors, passes out gospel tracts, and witnesses to the lost in our community. But sometimes we pass by the obvious to get where we are going. That obvious place for me was the house of Ricardo and Charlotte. A couple of weeks in a row I parked in front of their house to get where I was going but finally I realized I need to visit this man and his wife. So time and again we visited them in their two room shack. I shared the gospel with them along with several other soulwinners from our church. Finally Ricardo understood and asked Christ to save him. Charlotte was a bit more stubborn. But eventually after writing out a custom gospel tract with her name on it she seemed to understand HER PERSONAL need to call upon Christ to save her. They followed the LORD in baptism together. Pray for this couple as they are surrounded by alchohol, drugs, and terrible influences. Ricardo has also had a stroke since this time. Pray for his health.

Another great win for the glory of God happened just a few days ago. One of our young preachers had been witnessing to a local electrician. This same electrician got hired to do the electrical work on the building for Grace Baptist Church. On site he was confronted with the gospel multiple times. His name is Paul and finally his path crossed with mine and I was able to witness to him. He told me that he called on the Lord to save him when Pastor Stefan (of Grace Baptist) shared the gospel with him. He also invited me to come to his house and share the message with his wife. So just last week myself and a couple of men from the church went and sat down with Paul and his wife and she declared out loud “I’m guilty!” and proceeded to ask Jesus to save her. Pray for this family to grow in the truth of God’s Word. We are thankful for God allowing us to be laborers together with Him in seeing souls saved!

Before I close I would like to ask you to continue to pray for Madiba Bay Baptist Church and the family of Pastor Lubabalo Sitole. Some of his last words on earth were words of concern for his family if he passed. He is gone now and we are here to try to help Madiba Bay and his family after his passing. Pray for wisdom and grace in these matters.
