Sermon Series: Psalms: A Cry in the Night

Scriptures: Psalm 68:1-10; Colossians 2:9-15

Four insights to recover biblical war language...

1. The Bible is meant to be read on a trajectory toward _____
2. God's enemies are those who oppose the _____
3. We are all both _____ and _____ of God
4. The Gospel must make sense in a world still addicted to cycles of _____

Three classic steps of a cycle of war:

1. Advance led by the _____
2. Conflict with the _____
3. Procession back home for _____ and _____

Our hope is in _____ own return as King

- Our enemy: sin and evil...
 - In _____
 - In hard-_____ toward the vulnerable and the weak
 - In any power or person who claims absolute _____ as their own

This hope has been fulfilled in Jesus' _____

- Advance: _____ and _____ toward Jerusalem
- Conflict: _____, symbolic _____, and the _____
- Procession: regathering and resettling by the _____
