Children in Worship

Parents, relax. Children wiggle. We understand and we're so glad you're here with your little one(s). Consider sitting near the front to see if this helps your child see and engage in the service. Explain the different parts of the service to your child (singing God's praise, listening to God's word, praying God's will, etc). Children won't understand all the words they will hear, but they understand body language. Let them learn that God is worthy of our songs, prayers, and listening ears by the way you and others around them participate. If you feel that you need to leave the worship center for a time with your child, feel free to do so, but please come back. As Jesus said, "Let the children come to me; do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of God." (Mark 10:14).

Scriptural Call to Praise

For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places. Therefore take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand firm. Stand therefore, having fastened on the belt of truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, and, as shoes for your feet, having put on the readiness given by the gospel of peace. In all circumstances take up the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming darts of the evil one;

Congregational Prayer of Praise

Leader: Great God of all creation, we exalt You, the source of all light. Scripture tells us You dwell in unapproachable light.

All: You spoke and light came into being.

You separated light from darkness. You set the sun, moon, and stars in the heavens to give light upon the earth.

You gave us Your word to be a lamp unto our feet and a light unto our path.

Leader: You sent Your Son to earth to be the Light of the world. Yet the world rejected Him because their works were evil and they loved the darkness.

All: We exalt You, Lord Jesus. You called us out of darkness into Your marvelous light, and You promised that all who follow You will have the light of life. In Your death, burial, and resurrection, you defeated the power of darkness forever.

Leader: After you ascended, You sent the Holy Spirit to Your people to lead us into all truth, to sanctify us, and to seal us for the day that with unveiled faces, we will behold Your glory.

All: We exalt You, Holy Spirit. You illumine our hearts and minds to the truths of Your word. You dwell within Your people, making us the light of the world, a city on a hill that cannot be hidden. By Your power, we let our light shine among men that they may glorify our Father in heaven.

Leader: Great God of Light, while our sin brought darkness and death, no darkness has ever dwelt in You.

All: For God, who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," has shown in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ."

To Him be glory forever. Amen.
