“Time Will Tell”

Text: 2 Timothy 3:1-17

The reality of faith is not determined by the truths professed but rather by the truths lived out with integrity and passion.

- The apostle Paul warns of the vileness of religious pretense. (3:1-5)
- The apostle declares the emptiness of corrupt ministry. (3:6-9)
- The apostle rejoices in the beauty and struggle of a Christ-honoring life. (3:10-17)

“But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it and how from childhood you have been acquainted with the sacred writings, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, equipped for every good work”

2 Timothy 3:14-17
