Scriptural Call to Praise

But whatever anyone else dares to boast of—I am speaking as a fool—I also dare to boast of that. Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they offspring of Abraham? So am I. Are they servants of Christ? I am a better one—I am talking like a madman—with far greater labors, far more imprisonments, with countless beatings, and often near death. Five times I received at the hands of the Jews the forty lashes less one. Three times I was beaten with rods. Once I was stoned. Three times I was shipwrecked; a night and a day I was adrift at sea; on frequent journeys, in danger from rivers, danger from robbers, danger from my own people, danger from Gentiles, danger in the city, danger in the wilderness, danger at sea, danger from false brothers; in toil and hardship, through many a sleepless night, in hunger and thirst, often without food, in cold and exposure. And, apart from other things, there is the daily pressure on me of my anxiety for all the churches. Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is made to fall, and I am not indignant? If I must boast, I will boast of the things that show my weakness.

There we will rise to meet the Lord, Then sin and death will be de - stroyed,

And what will keep us to the end? The love of Christ, in which we stand.
Who sends the waves that bring us nigh Un - to the shore, the rock of Christ?

CHRIST, THE SURE AND STEADY ANCHOR

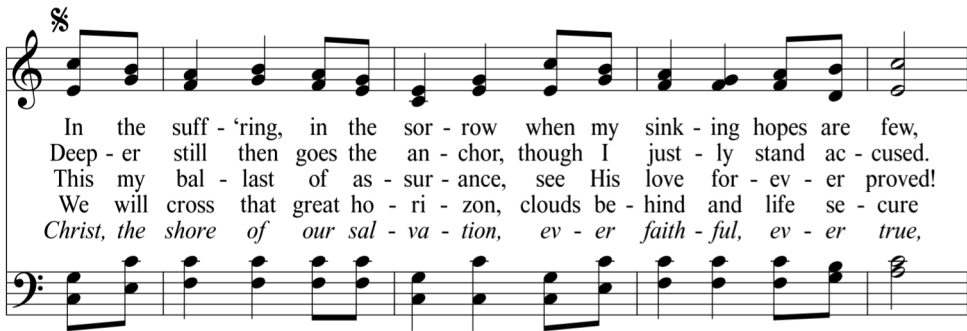

Words and Music by Matt Boswell and Matt Papa, © 2014 Messenger Hymns, CCLI License #527829.

1. Christ, the sure and steady anchor in the fury of the storm,
2. Christ, the sure and steady anchor while the tempest rages on.
3. Christ, the sure and steady anchor through the floods of unbelief.
4. Christ, the sure and steady anchor as we face the wave of death.

When the winds of doubt blow through me and my sails have all been torn
When temptation claims the battle and it seems the night has won,
Hopeless, somehow, O my soul now, lift your eyes to Calvary.
When these trials give way to glory and we draw our final breath,

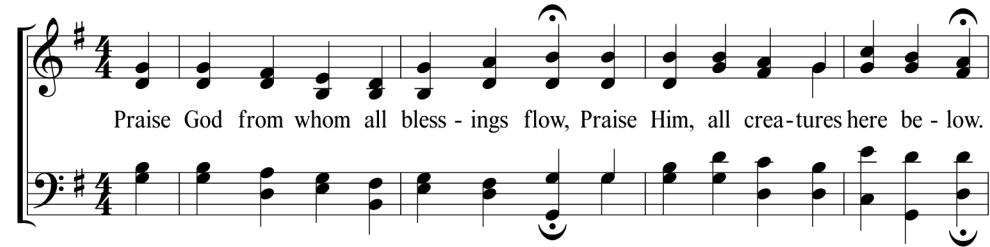

In the suffring, in the sorrow when my sinking hopes are few,
Deeper still then goes the anchor, though I justly stand accused.
This my bal-last of assurance, see His love forever proved!
We will cross that great horizon, clouds behind and life secure
Christ, the shore of our salvation, ever faithful, ever true,

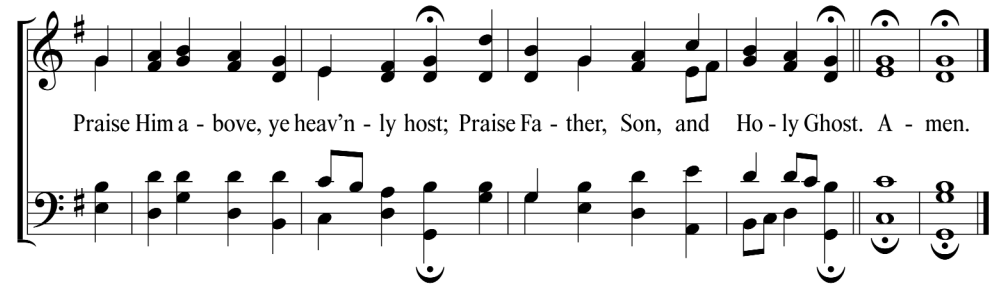

repeat to sign after v. 4
I will hold fast to the anchor, it shall never be removed.
I will hold fast to the anchor, it shall never be removed.
I will hold fast to the anchor, it shall never be removed.
And the calm will be the better, for the storms that we endure.
We will hold fast to the anchor, it shall never be removed.

To Our Guests

We are glad you are here. Know that you have been prayed for and we are thankful that the Lord has brought you to worship with us today. There is nothing more important than knowing God and enjoying Him forever. The knowledge of God shapes and blesses every facet of our lives. Join us as we seek to know Him better. If you have questions about the Christian faith, have need of prayer, or would like more information about our church, please speak to us at the conclusion of today's service.

Online Guest Card

We have an online guest card that will help us better connect with you beyond today's service. Visit tbctulsa.org/get-connected or scan the following code on your smartphone or tablet:

Children in Worship

Parents, relax. Children wiggle. We understand and we're so glad you're here with your little one(s). Consider sitting near the front to see if this helps your child see and engage in the service. Explain the different parts of the service to your child (singing God's praise, listening to God's word, praying God's will, etc). Children won't understand all the words they will hear, but they understand body language. Let them learn that God is worthy of our songs, prayers, and listening ears by the way you and others around them participate. If you feel that you need to leave the worship center for a time with your child, feel free to do so, but please come back. As Jesus said, "Let the children come to me; do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of God." (Mark 10:14).
