The Holy Estate of Christian Marriage

(Jesus) answered, “Have you not read that he who made them from the beginning made them male and female, ⁵ and said, ‘For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh’? ⁶ So they are no longer two but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, let not man put asunder.” Matthew 19:4-6 RSV

Marriage is a service of worship in which the invited guests are not mere spectators but participants in the service. They are there not simply to watch but to be a congregation of God’s people. Marriage is a glad occasion overflowing with joy, and those who celebrate it rejoice in the gifts of God—life, health, strength, sexuality, the family—all that the Creator declared from the beginning to be “very good.”

Marriage is not an exclusively Christian possession. It was known, practiced and honored in the Old Testament. It is moreover a structure which belongs to all humanity. It is essentially a covenant of fidelity between a man and woman made with society’s sanction, grounded in the steadfast love of God. God’s abiding faithfulness is the model: as he is, so should we be.

Marriage is a social contract, the basis of which is the commitment that the man and the woman make to each other. Contrary to the popular understanding, the basis is not love, for human love is changeable and cannot be depended on as a reliable foundation. One cannot promise to be in love years hence, but one can make a commitment...For human beings, faithfulness and love need not go together. In God the two are joined, and it is in his “steadfast love” that we seek to root our covenant of fidelity as well as our emotions of love. In the flux of experience, one thing holds true—the vows of fidelity grounded in the love of God which abides forever.

Introduction

Thank you for your interest in having your wedding at Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church (GELC), Westerville, Ohio. Due to the number of requests we receive for weddings, it is useful to provide a written document regarding the process of preparing for a wedding and to state the specific policies relating to weddings within this congregation. As you read through this booklet, our hope is that many of your questions will be answered. Certainly, not every possible issue is covered but we have made an effort to address the most common questions.

Policies and Guidelines

Who may have a wedding at Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church?

Within the North American Lutheran Church and in accordance with the Biblical mandate for the holy estate of marriage, marriage is between one man and one woman. The norm is for bride and/or groom to be members of GELC. Although we wish to welcome all people to our church, many request use of a church for a wedding simply based on “appearance”; they like the looks of the place and think it would make a good “setting” or “backdrop” for their photos. In our Lutheran understanding, a marriage is a worship service of the Church of Jesus Christ, as those entering into the holy estate of matrimony come to their church home to ask God’s blessing upon their relationship. Those who do not take seriously their Christian faith or have no Christian involvement whatsoever may prefer to have their marriage performed by a judge, through the civil marriage system. Certainly, marriage within the Church may be an intentional beginning to lives lived in faith and commitment. If this is the case, we want to encourage and upbuild that intention. However, please be aware that requests for weddings at GELC where the bride and/or groom are not members of this church and who have no connection to any Christian congregation are not often approved. Friends and family members of GELC congregants are, of course, welcome, and those who are active members of other congregations who are in special circumstances (i.e. have family in the Columbus area, have difficulty with the annulment process in their own tradition, etc.) are certainly welcome to request having a wedding at GELC.

How early should we begin the process?

Those who desire to be married at GELC should contact the church office as soon as possible to inquire regarding date, availability of the pastor/musicians/building. You will also receive important information about pre-marital counseling (discussed later), cost, etc. Twelve months in advance is not too early to notify the church office of your intentions. If you know the date of your wedding a year in advance, contacting the church office at that time will help to secure the date you want for your wedding. Contacting the church or the pastor too late may result in not being able to have your wedding at GELC.

What is pre-marital counseling?

Marriage is a serious commitment, and one that brings with it unusual strains, pressures, and difficulties, along with joy, blessings and fulfillment. Because the Church of Jesus Christ views the marriage bond as a life-long commitment, we encourage those considering marriage to look honestly at themselves, their relationship and strengths, as well as areas for growth. At GELC, as in most Christian congregations, we expect that this happens through “pre-marital counseling”. This involves several sessions with a licensed marriage and family counselor. The pastor or church office will provide you with one or two names of counselors, if you desire. However, if you have a counselor you would prefer to use, that is acceptable as well. The couple should contact the counselor as early as possible, arrange a time for meeting, and begin the process. Counselors charge an hourly fee that the couple pay as agreed with the counselor. Some counselors may work with a sliding fee scale if cost is an issue. Consider this the most valuable money spent in preparation for your wedding. We suggest parents or family might consider covering the cost of “premarital counseling” as their gift to the couple. The usual number of premarital sessions is three; however, this is up to the counselor and couple to decide. As a benchmark, the fee for three sessions can be around $300.

Don't pastors often provide pre-marital counseling?

In the past, many clergy offered pre-marital counseling. It is our firm belief that couples who work with a licensed marriage and family counselor receive a more valuable, indepth pre-marital experience. If necessary due to cost, scheduling, etc., the pastor of GELC may be willing to provide pre-marital counseling; however, you are encouraged to make use of a licensed marriage and family counselor so that if, in the future, you may wish to work through certain issues, you will already have an established relationship with a competent counselor. It is not appropriate to do pre-marital counseling with a close relative (father, mother, brother, sister, grandparent) who is a pastor or counselor.

Who will officiate at our wedding?

Normally, the pastor of GELC will officiate at weddings. The first step in scheduling a wedding at GELC is to contact the pastor and church office to determine availability and receive approval. In certain circumstances, another Christian minister may be approved to officiate at your wedding at GELC. This may include situations when there is a family member or friend who is an ordained minister of the Gospel. Only ordained ministers of the Gospel may officiate at weddings at GELC, and marriages may only be between one man and one woman.

How do we plan the marriage service?

Above everything else, the marriage service is a service of worship in which the bridal party and invited guests are worshipers. The service is a glad service overflowing with joy, and those who participate in this service focus on God, His presence, and His many gifts. For this reason, the marriage service will normally follow the form found as an appendix in this booklet. This service utilizes the richness of the Lutheran tradition within the one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. It encourages participation of all present, ensures the integrity of the service, and provides the needed structure. The service is designed to present a variety of options, suggestions, and possibilities. Bear in mind, however, as Christian marriage is a "rite" of the church, the pastor is the final authority regarding the service, music, decorations, worship furnishings, and articles.

Is there a congregational wedding coordinator?

GELC has an experienced wedding coordinator team. Normally, two will be assigned to assist you with your wedding preparations, in consultation with the pastor. The coordinators' responsibilities include serving as liaison between the congregational sacristan, florist, and pastor, as well as providing direction to the wedding party. A meeting with the wedding coordinators is recommended as early as possible after the wedding date is approved.

May the marriage service include Holy Communion?

When those being married are members of this congregation (bride and/or groom), or are active Christians in another congregation, the marriage service may be placed within the Holy Communion, so that the Lord's Supper may be celebrated as part of the service. Doing so enhances and makes vivid the wedding imagery of the Eucharist and the eucharistic intimacy of marriage. The bride and groom, family members, or friends may be used as communion assistants, heightening the special nature of the Lord's Supper as a gift for all present. When the Holy Communion is celebrated as part of a marriage, it is always open to the congregation and never restricted to only the bride and groom or wedding party.

Who selects the scripture lessons and vows for the marriage service?

The bride and groom working in consultation with the pastor are encouraged to select the passages from Scripture that they would like to read at the wedding. A list of some appropriate passages is included as an appendix to this booklet. One, two, or three Scripture lessons may be read. Also included as an appendix are several vows from which the couple may choose. The vows are the words that the bride and groom will speak to make their commitment to each other, before God and the witnesses gathered. Choose the vow that best reflects your thoughts and feelings about your relationship. If you would like to combine certain parts of one vow with another, the pastor will assist you. You may also choose to write your own vows; however, speak with the pastor about this early on to receive guidance so that your vows will reflect the mutuality, commitment, and life-long intentions that must be a part of marriage vows.

May we have music at our wedding?

The organist of GELC also serves as music coordinator within the congregation. Normally, the organist of GELC will serve as primary musician for weddings at GELC and will coordinate all musical offerings. Most weddings include music in some form, whether organ or piano, vocal soloist, guitar, or flute, for example. The Grace wedding coordinators will make arrangements for an organist. If Grace church's organist is not available, the church office maintains a list of other competent organists who may be contacted. We do not allow the use of pre-recorded music for services in the church sanctuary. Regarding the selection of music, please understand that the marriage service is a service of worship and if there is music, it must be carefully and discriminatingly chosen. It should embody high standards of quality and the texts should reflect the praise of God, the steadfast love of Christ for His Church as the foundation and model for love and fidelity in marriage, and the invocation of God's presence and blessings. Consequently, much popular music is not appropriate. Again, the organist should be consulted early about choice of music, and the organist/music coordinator, together with the pastor, are the final authority regarding which music may be used within the marriage service in this church.

May we have our own musician/organist?

If you have a friend or acquaintance who is an accomplished musician, they may play for your wedding, with the approval of the GELC organist/music coordinator. A "bench fee" of $75 is required if you wish to use a non-Grace church organist.

May we have our service without music?

Music is not required for weddings. Many simple services without music are beautiful, dignified and memorable. You may choose whether to have music or not at your wedding, as you wish.

Is there a rehearsal for the wedding?

The rehearsal is normally scheduled for the afternoon or evening prior to the day of the service and will be coordinated by the GELC wedding coordinator. All musicians, attendants, parents, and the bridal couple should be present. The rehearsal will usually last no more than an hour. It is important that all people arrive and be ready to begin at least fifteen minutes in advance of the appointed time. The rehearsal assures that the marriage service will be worshipful, well-planned, and well-prepared. If you wish to invite the officiating pastor, organist, etc., to a rehearsal dinner, please extend the invitation well in advance of the wedding date.

When will the church be opened for the wedding?

The wedding coordinators will open the church two hours before the wedding unless you have made special arrangements. There will be an additional fee of $25 per ½ hour for an extended opening of the church.

Where will we dress for the service?

The wedding coordinator will direct you to the areas appropriate for the bride, her attendants, and the groom and groomsmen. You will find it helpful to have one or two friends or family members responsible for collecting personal effects after the service. Please provide shopping bags for each attendant's personal belongings as items are collected and removed after the wedding service.

Is there flexibility regarding chancel/worship arrangements?

The altar, pulpit, cross, etc., must remain in place as for any worship service at GELC. The bride and groom, family, or wedding party may not rearrange the church or chancel. There is to be respect for the congregation's worship space, worship practices, and worship policies. The pastor of GELC is the final authority regarding all marriage services that take place within its church building.

What decorations may be used?

You may use the florist of your choice. Florists should communicate with the GELC wedding coordinator regarding what is allowed. The wedding coordinator will also guide you concerning appropriate decorations.

As mentioned above, the pastor is the final authority regarding decorations, flowers, etc. As a general rule, no flowers or plants or other decorations are allowed on the altar or in front of the altar or pulpit in such a way as to block or obscure the centrality of the altar and pulpit. Flowers and plants may be placed in front of or around the altar and pulpit, so long as they do not block or obscure the centrality of the altar and pulpit. Again, the wedding coordinator, in consultation with the pastor, will determine if the placement of flowers/plants is acceptable. Use of an arch in front of the altar is discouraged. Bows or decoration may be attached to chairs at the aisles, in consultation with the wedding coordinator. Cloth or plastic aisle runners may not be used. Plant stands are available for your use at no cost. A variety of plant stands are available for use. Please consult the wedding coordinator.

May we use a Unity Candle?

Although a so-called "Unity Candle" is not a normal part of the wedding service, it may be included in the Rite of Marriage. In consultation with the GELC wedding coordinator, you should purchase or rent the necessary articles and bring them to the church for the rehearsal. The Unity Candle, if used, may be placed on the altar, with limited adornment. The lighting of the Unity Candle usually takes place after the exchange of vows and rings. It is appropriate to have music during the lighting of the candle; however, it is not required.

May we throw rice or bird seed?

No rice, bird seed, or flower petals may be thrown as the couple leaves the church. A viable option used by many couples today are the small vials of "bubbles" that may be blown "at" the couple as they depart the church. Artificial or silk flower petals scattered by flower girls during the procession up the aisle at the beginning of the marriage service are allowed.

May we use the fellowship hall or Loaves and Fishes area for a reception?

Members (and in some circumstances family and personal friends of members) of the congregation may use the fellowship hall or "Loaves and Fishes" area of the church for "cake" receptions after the service. A fee of $150 is required to use these areas. You may serve champagne, sparkling wine, a sparkling cider punch, or a clear/lemon-lime punch for a wedding toast. However, no open bar, other alcohol or beverages are allowed. The fellowship hall will seat 100 persons maximum. GELC cannot accommodate a reception with full meal service.

What is the church's policy regarding photography/videography?

Photographs and videos may be taken as desired before the service begins and after the service has ended, including the procession and recession. During the service, photographs may be taken from the rear of the church, with no flash. Video cameras may be used from the rear of the church during the service, provided aisles are left clear and unobstructed. Please plan to have photography after the wedding completed within 45 minutes after the conclusion of the service.

May we have a printed bulletin for our wedding?

A wedding service folder will be prepared and printed on plain white paper by the church office. If you choose to order special wedding bulletin folders with picture/print on the cover, you may do so at your expense. The church office may be able to do the preparation/printing, depending upon the size of the wedding. Please consult the pastor/church office regarding bulletins. The wedding bulletin information sheet is due to the church office 30 days prior to wedding.

What is the church’s policy regarding smoking/alcohol?

No smoking is allowed anywhere in the building at any time. Please inform guests and participants in this regard. If you are having a simple cake reception at the church, champagne or wine is allowed for the wedding toast. No other alcohol is allowed in the building or on the grounds at any time.

As the marriage service is a solemn, serious, Christian worship service, it is not appropriate for bride or groom or any member of the wedding party to consume alcohol prior to the rehearsal or wedding service. Evidence of such usage could impede the rehearsal or service.

Who may receive “member” consideration for weddings?

“Members” are church members, as well as extended family of church members, including children and grandchildren.

What are the fees related to weddings at GELC? (please refer to wedding expense sheet which follows)

The total amount for fees, use, honoraria, etc., is to be paid 30 days in advance of the wedding to the Grace church office or online via the Grace Church portal.

What should we do with the marriage license?

Bring the marriage license with you to the rehearsal. The pastor will keep it until the wedding and will organize the “signing”. After the wedding, the church office will complete the form and return it to the appropriate county office immediately. Please be sure to schedule an early, appropriate time to secure your marriage license. Bear in mind that the county office that handles licenses is closed evenings, weekends, and holidays!

When are we expected to depart the church after the service?

Use of the church will conclude one hour after the completion of the wedding service.

The Service of Marriage

The Processional Hymn

Pastor: In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, (+) and of the Holy Spirit.

Congregation: AMEN.

THE EXHORTATION

P: Dearly beloved: Forasmuch as Marriage is a holy estate, ordained by God and to be held in honor by all, it becomes those who enter therein to weigh, with reverent minds, what the Word of God teaches concerning it:

Our Lord Jesus Christ said:

“Have you not read that He who made them at the beginning, made them male and female, and said, “For this reason shall a man leave father and mother, and cleave to his wife; and the two shall become one flesh? Wherefore they are no more two, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let no one put asunder.”

P: Into this holy estate, this man and woman come now to be united. If any one, therefore, can show just cause why they may not be lawfully joined together, speak now, or forever hold your peace.

THE DECLARATION OF CONSENT

P: Who presents this woman and this man to be married to each other?

(The person or persons making the presentation answer...)
I/We do, and ask God’s blessing upon them.

P: (Name), do you take this man to be your wedded husband, to live together in this holy estate of Marriage; to love him, comfort him, honor and keep him, and forsaking all others, be faithful to him as long as you both shall live?

(The woman answers...)
I do.

P: (Name), do you take this woman to be your wedded wife, to live together in this holy estate of Marriage? Will you love her, comfort her, honor and keep her, and forsaking all others, be faithful to her as long as you both shall live?

(The man answers...)
I do.

P: Will all of you witnessing these promises do all in your power to uphold these two persons in their marriage?

C: WE WILL.

P: The Lord be with you.

C: AND ALSO WITH YOU.

THE MINISTRY OF THE WORD

P: Let us pray.

O Gracious and Ever-living God, you have created us male and female in your image, and by the gift of marriage have founded human community in a joy that begins now and is brought to perfection in the life to come. As you gladdened the wedding at Cana in Galilee by the presence of your Son, so by His presence now bring your joy to this wedding. Look mercifully upon _____ and _____, who come to you seeking your blessing, and assist them with your grace, that with true fidelity and steadfast love, they may honor and keep the vows they make this day, that rejoicing in all your gifts, they may at length celebrate with Christ the marriage feast which has no end; through Jesus Christ our Savior, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

C: AMEN.

THE SCRIPTURE LESSONS

(If there is more than one lesson, music may be offered between the lessons.)

THE MARRIAGE

P: (Name) and (Name), if it is your intention to share with each other your joys and sorrows and all that the years will bring, with your promises now bind yourselves to each other as husband and wife.

(The bride and groom face each other and join hands. Each, in turn, promises faithfulness to the other in the words of the marriage vows.)

The Vows are exchanged.

(The pastor asks God's blessing on the rings as follows:)

P: Bless, O Lord, these rings, to be a sign of the vows by which this man and this woman have bound themselves to each other, in you; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

C: AMEN.

(The bride and groom exchange rings with these words:)

I give you this ring as a sign of my love and faithfulness, and with all that I have, I honor you, in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

P: (Name) and (Name), by their promises before God and this congregation, have bound themselves to one another in marriage. I pronounce them husband and wife: In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Those whom God has joined together let no one put asunder.

C: AMEN.

(The husband and wife kneel to receive the pastoral blessing.)

The Blessing

(The Unity Candle, if used, is lighted at this time. There may be music during the lighting.)

The Prayers

The Benediction

The Recessional (Music should be chosen for the recessional.)

(If there is Holy Communion, the service continues with the Peace, the Eucharistic Prayer, the Communion, the Post-Communion Prayer, Benediction and Recessional)

Old Testament Lessons

Genesis 1:26-31

26: Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth." 27: So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them. 28: And God blessed them, and God said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over every living thing that moves upon the earth." 29: And God said, "Behold, I have given you every plant yielding seed which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree with seed in its fruit; you shall have them for food. 30: And to every beast of the earth, and to every bird of the air, and to everything that creeps on the earth, everything that has the breath of life, I have given every green plant for food." And it was so. 31: And God saw everything that he had made, and behold, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, a sixth day.

Genesis 2:18-24

18: Then the LORD God said, "It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a helper fit for him." 19: So out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field and every bird of the air, and brought them to the man to see what he would call them; and whatever the man called every living creature, that was its name. 20: The man gave names to all cattle, and to the birds of the air, and to every beast of the field; but for the man there was not found a helper fit for him. 21: So the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall upon the man, and while he slept took one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh; 22: and the rib which the LORD God had taken from the man he made into a woman and brought her to the man. 23: Then the man said, "This at last is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man." 24: Therefore a man leaves his father and his mother and cleaves to his wife, and they become one flesh.

Song of Solomon 2:10-13

10: My beloved speaks and says to me: "Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away; 11: for lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone. 12: The flowers appear on the earth, the time of singing has come, and the voice of the turtledove is heard in our land. 13: The fig tree puts forth its figs, and the vines are in blossom; they give forth fragrance. Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away.

Song of Solomon 8:6-7

6: Set me as a seal upon your heart, as a seal upon your arm; for love is strong as death, jealousy is cruel as the grave. Its flashes are flashes of fire, a most vehement flame. 7: Many waters cannot quench love, neither can floods drown it. If a man offered for love all the wealth of his house, it would be utterly scorned.

Isaiah 63:7-9

7: I will recount the steadfast love of the LORD, the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD has granted us, and the great goodness to the house of Israel which he has granted them according to his mercy, according to the abundance of his steadfast love. 8: For he said, Surely they are my people, sons who will not deal falsely; and he became their Savior. 9: In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them; in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; he lifted them up and carried them all the days of old.

Epistle Lessons

Romans 12:1-2

1: I appeal to you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. 2: Do not be conformed to this world but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that you may prove what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect.

I Corinthians 12:31-13:13

31: But earnestly desire the higher gifts. And I will show you a still more excellent way.

1: If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. 2: And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. 3: If I give away all I have, and if I deliver my body to be burned, but have not love, I gain nothing. 4: Love is patient and kind; love is not jealous or boastful; 5: it is not arrogant or rude. Love does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; 6: it does not rejoice at wrong, but rejoices in the right. 7: Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. 8: Love never ends; as for prophecies, they will pass away; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will pass away. 9: For our knowledge is imperfect and our prophecy is imperfect; 10: but when the perfect comes, the imperfect will pass away. 11: When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child; when I became a man, I gave up childish ways. 12: For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall understand fully, even as I have been fully understood. 13: So faith, hope, love abide, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

Ephesians 5:21-33

21: Be subject to one another out of reverence for Christ. 22: Wives, be subject to your husbands, as to the Lord. 23: For the husband is the head of the wife as Christ is the head of the church, his body, and is himself its Savior. 24: As the church is subject to Christ, so let wives also be subject in everything to their husbands. 25: Husbands, love your wives, as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her, 26: that he might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word, 27: that he might present the church to himself in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, that she might be holy and without blemish. 28: Even so husbands should love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself. 29: For no man ever hates his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it, as Christ does the church, 30: because we are members of his body. 31: "For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh." 32: This mystery is a profound one, and I am saying that it refers to Christ and the church; 33: however, let each one of you love his wife as himself, and let the wife see that she respects her husband.

Gospel Lessons

St. Matthew 19:4-6

4: He answered, "Have you not read that he who made them from the beginning made them male and female, 5: and said, 'For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh'? 6: So they are no longer two but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, let not man put asunder."

St. John 2:1-10

1: On the third day there was a marriage at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there; 2: Jesus also was invited to the marriage, with his disciples. 3: When the wine failed, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." 4: And Jesus said to her, "O woman, what have you to do with me? My hour has not yet come." 5: His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." 6: Now six stone jars were standing there, for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. 7: Jesus said to them, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. 8: He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the steward of the feast." So they took it. 9: When the steward of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward of the feast called the bridegroom 10: and said to him, "Every man serves the good wine first; and when men have drunk freely, then the poor wine; but you have kept the good wine until now." 11: This, the first of his signs, Jesus did at Cana in Galilee, and manifested his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

St. John 15:9-12

9: As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you; abide in my love. 10: If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. 11: These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full. 12: "This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you.

I take you, name, to be my (wife/husband), and these things I promise you: I will be faithful to you and honest with you; I will respect, trust, help and care for you; I will share my life with you; I will forgive you as we have been forgiven; and I will try with you better to understand ourselves, the world, and God; through the best and worst of what is to come until death parts us.

B:

I take you, name, to be my (wife/husband). I promise before God and these witnesses to be your faithful (husband/wife), to share with you in plenty and in want, in joy and in sorrow, in sickness and in health; to forgive and strengthen you, and to join with you so that together we may serve God and others as long as we both shall live.

C:

Name, I take you to be my (wife/husband) from this time onward; to join with you and to share all that is to come, to give and to receive, to speak and to listen, to inspire and to respond, and in all circumstances of our life together to be loyal to you with my whole life and with all my being until death parts us.

D: (Traditional)

I, name, take you, name, to be my wedded (wife/husband); to have and to hold from this day forward: for better, for worse; for richer, for poorer; in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish till death do us part, according to God's Holy Word; and thereto I pledge you my faithfulness.
