God is fighting for us

Week 13

Day 3 — Rahab: Grace in the Middle of the Battle
Joshua 2:1–14

Devotional
Right in the middle of Israel's conquest, Scripture introduces Rahab—a woman from Jericho who chooses to trust Israel's God. She wasn't an Israelite. She didn't have the right background. Yet she believed. Rahab reminds us that God's salvation isn't restricted to the people we expect.
Grace can reach people in the middle of the enemy's territory. And the woman who was once associated with Jericho eventually becomes part of the story of Jesus. God can completely rewrite someone's story.

Discussion Questions

- What does Rahab teach you about God's grace?
- Is there someone you have assumed is “too far” from God?
- How might God want you to see that person differently?

PRAYER
God, thank You that Your grace reaches farther than I imagine. Help me never write anyone off.
Use my life to help people discover Your grace.
