AND FOR HIM."

COLOSSIANS 1:16

DEVOTIONAL MOMENT

I remember building sandcastles on the beach as a child. I was very protective of them and would do everything I could to keep them from being destroyed by other kids or even by the waves. Because the sandcastles were made by me, they belonged to me in a special way. As a parent, you understand this instinct. When you've poured time, energy, and love into your children, you feel a deep sense of care and responsibility for them. Because God created everything, it all belongs to him. He provides and protects because it is all His. Someone once said, "There is not a square inch in the whole domain of our human existence over which Christ, who is Sovereign over all, does not cry, 'Mine!'" Because that is true, we can trust Him with everything—including our children.

A- In the Bible Alone

Q-Who wrote the Bible

A-Holy men who were taught by the Holy Spirit

PRAYER MOMENT

FAITH THROUGH FEAR

Lord, when my child faces something scary, help them run to You first. May trust be their instinct instead of panic.
Isaiah 41:10

TRUSTING YOUR PLAN

Lord, even when life doesn't make sense, help my child trust that You are good and that Your plans are always better.
Jeremiah 29:11

PEACE

Father, when my child's mind races with worry, give them a peace that cannot be explained. Hold their heart steady in the storm.
Philippians 4:6-7

HOPE IN SUFFERING

God, if my child walks through a hard season, keep their hope rooted in You. Remind them that You are still working even when they can't see it.
Romans 5:3-4

YOUR PRESENCE

Father, help my child know in the deepest part of their heart that You will never leave them. May that truth be their anchor.
Hebrews 13:5
