Read James 1:19 (NIV) together:

“Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to become angry.”

Discuss—Which do you need God’s help with most? Listening better or controlling your anger?

Read the story of the tortoise and the hare together.

You can find many read along versions on “YouTube”. When you finish the story, talk about why being slow can actually be a good thing!

SLOW

Here are 2 “slow” jokes!

Q. Why did the sloth cross the road?

A. NoBody knows, he’s still trying!

Q. What do turtles make when it snows?

A. “SLOW-angels”

Do you know what the slowest moving animal in the world is?

It’s a sloth!

They are so slow that algae actually grows on them!

Pray each night this week, asking God to help your family be quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to become angry.

Remember, these are things we can’t do all by ourselves!
