

LOO HOO

Cindy

Daddy? Why does Mommy get upset every year at Christmas?

Loo

(snaps out of deep thought, realizing Cindy is talking to him) Huh? Cindy? What are you doing awake, hon? Aren't you supposed to be sleeping, little girl?

Cindy

I can't sleep.

Loo

Excited about tomorrow, huh? Christmas is the best time of the year, if you ask me!

Cindy

Dad, was I wrong about wanting the Gronch to get saved?

Loo

Well, Cindy, some people just don't want to hear about Jesus!

Cindy

I know that. But doesn't God want everyone to be saved so they can go to heaven?

Loo

Well, yeah.

Cindy

So, if they did listen, they could get saved if they wanted to, couldn't they?

Loo

I suppose so.

Cindy

Doesn't the "Hoo"-ly Bible tell us to go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature? Doesn't that include the Gronch? He's a creature.

Loo

Yeah, well...oh, so that's where this conversation is going. Listen, we've had enough of the Gronch today to last us until next Christmas. Let's talk about it then. Now, get to bed.

Cindy

(disappointedly) Yes, sir. (Cindy rolls over to sleep holding baby Jesus.)

Loo

What a girl! It's Christmas Eve and all she can think about is getting the Grinch saved! She's growing up so fast...
