Sermon Text: Psalm 145

Date: June 7, 2026

Sermon Title: The Greatness of God's Works

Main Idea: Let the wonder of our great and good God ignite a heart of consistent worship to Him.

Breaking the Ice

- Who is a hero in your life?

Excavating the Truth

- Reread Psalm 145
- The NIV describes God's greatness as "unfathomable" in v. 3. How does this translation deepen your understanding God's greatness?

- How do verse 1 and verse 21 help emphasize the importance and magnitude of worship?

Applying the Truth Personally

- What is one area in my life where I have replaced the worship of God with the worship of something else?

- Where has my worship failed or blossomed in my interaction with the unsaved people God has placed in my life?

Applying the Truth Congregationally

- How can we as a church be sure to proclaim God's wonderful works to the next generation?

- What are one or two areas in our ministry that may be hurting from a lack of truly meditating on the wonderful works of God?

Digging Deeper

- Read Psalm 145 and write a biography of God by writing down every work and character trait of God that David mentions.

- Read Psalm 145:8 and Exodus 34:6. What does it mean that God is slow to anger yet great in lovingkindness?

Looking Ahead

- Read Luke 19:11-27 daily.
