Stronger Parenting Team

THE 5 KEYS

TO GROW A STRONGER PARENTING TEAM

UNITY

Choose unity over being right. You won't always agree on every parenting decision, but you can work through differences and stay focused on what's best for your family. Offer forgiveness and reconciliation when differences cause disputes.

RESILIENCE

Parenting will bring challenges, setbacks, and unexpected moments. Give each other grace, learn from what doesn't go as planned, and keep moving forward together. You set the tone for your kids' resilience by being resilient.

SHARED RESPONSIBILITY

Parenting works best when you operate as partners. Share the physical, emotional, and spiritual responsibilities of raising your children so neither parent carries the load alone.

CLEAR COMMUNICATION

Make time to talk openly about what's working, what isn't, and what your family needs. Listen to understand, communicate with respect, and address differences before they become division.

KNOW THE PLAYBOOK

Get clear about the values, boundaries, and priorities that guide your parenting. A shared approach helps you make decisions with greater consistency, confidence, and purpose.

CONNECT & REFLECT

Where are we winning?

What is one area where we currently work well together as parents?

Where are we getting out of sync?

What parenting issue tends to create the most tension between us?

Who's carrying the load?

How well are we sharing the parenting responsibilities?

What's in our playbook?

What are 2-3 values we want to consistently guide our parenting?

WIN AT HOME

ONE ADJUSTMENT WE NEED TO MAKE FOR TEAM UNITY:

ONE CONVERSATION WE NEED TO SCHEDULE:

ONE WAY I CAN SUPPORT MY SPOUSE BETTER:

PRAY

Ask God to guide you to walk worthy of your calling as parents. Use the verse below as a prayer.

Therefore I, the prisoner in the Lord, urge you to walk worthy of the calling you have received, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, making every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace. – Ephesians 4:1-3 (CSB)
