Questions for further study and to help parents continue the sermon with their children...

What does the term "the old covenant" refer to? When was it? What type of system was it? How did it point to Jesus?

What does the term "the new covenant" refer to? Why was it needed? How is Jesus the mediator of it? What is a mediator? How is salvation found there and not in the old covenant system?

What does it mean to have God's law written on our minds and hearts as Christians?

Old Covenant	vs	New Covenant
Priesthood of mortal men		Jesus' priesthood
Bodily descent		Indestructible life
Weakness & uselessness		Perfection
No oath made to priests		Oath made to Jesus "You are a priest forever."
Many priests		One priest - Jesus
Old priest prevented by death from continuing in office		Jesus' priesthood is permanent
Animal sacrifices		Jesus' sacrifice of Himself
Sacrifices offered repeatedly		Once-for-all sacrifice earthly/physical promises		heavenly/spiritual promises
comes to an end as a covenant		exists forever
Moses the main mediator		Jesus the Mediator
God finds fault		faultless
tablets of stone		written on the heart vanished away in first century		endures forever

salvation only found under the New Covenant
