Monday

Scripture: Romans 12:3

Questions for Reflection

- What warning does Paul give about the way believers should think about themselves?
- According to this verse, how should a believer evaluate himself?
- Why is humility important when serving alongside other Christians?
- In what situations do you need God's help to think less about yourself and more about serving others?

Questions for Children

- How does Paul say we should think about ourselves?
- Who gives faith to believers?

Prayer Prompt

Father, protect me from pride and self-centered thinking. Help me see myself rightly and serve others with humility and gratitude.

Tuesday

Scripture: Romans 12:4-5

Questions for Reflection

- What comparison does Paul use to describe the church?
- What does Paul say about the relationship between members of the body?
- What does this passage teach about the importance of every believer in the church?
- How can you show greater appreciation for the people who serve in different ways than you do?

Questions for Children

- What does Paul compare believers to in these verses?
- Do all the members have the same function?

Prayer Prompt

Lord, thank You for making me part of Your family and Your church. Help me value every member and work together with others in unity and love.

Wednesday

Scripture: Romans 12:6-8

Questions for Reflection

- What are some of the spiritual gifts listed in these verses?
- How does Paul instruct believers to use the gifts they have received?
- Why is it important to use your God-given gifts instead of comparing yourself to others?
- What opportunities has God given you to serve the church with the gifts He has entrusted to you?

Questions for Children

- Name one gift or ministry mentioned in these verses.
- How should believers use the gifts God gives them?

Prayer Prompt

Heavenly Father, thank You for giving different gifts to different people. Help me use my gifts faithfully and joyfully to serve Christ and strengthen His church.

Thursday

Scripture: Ecclesiastes 4:9-10

Questions for Reflection

- According to these verses, why are two people better than one?
- What benefit is described when one person falls?

- What do these verses teach about working together rather than serving alone?
- Who has God placed in your life to encourage and strengthen your walk with Christ?

Questions for Children

- Are two people better than one according to these verses?
- What can one person do when another person falls?

Prayer Prompt

Father, thank You for the people You have placed around me to encourage and help me. Help me also be a source of strength and encouragement to others.

Friday

Scripture: Romans 12:3-8; Ecclesiastes 4:7-11

Questions for Reflection

- What themes about cooperation and mutual support appear in these passages?
- What benefits come when people work together rather than alone?
- How do these passages show the joy of pastors and church members serving together for Christ?
- What is one specific way you can work more closely with your church leaders and fellow members in the coming week?

Questions for Children

- Does God want His people to work together or alone?
- What happens when people help and support one another?

Prayer Prompt

Lord, thank You for the joy of serving alongside other believers. Help our church work together in humility, unity, and love so that Christ is honored and the gospel advances.
