Psalm 119:89–96 (BHS OT)

<sup>90</sup>Your faithfulness continues throughout generations; You established the earth, and it stands.

<sup>92</sup>If Your Law had not been my delight, Then I would have perished in my misery.

<sup>93</sup>I will never forget Your precepts, For by them You have revived me.

<sup>94</sup>I am Yours, save me; For I have sought Your precepts.

<sup>95</sup>The wicked wait for me to destroy me; I will diligently consider Your testimonies.

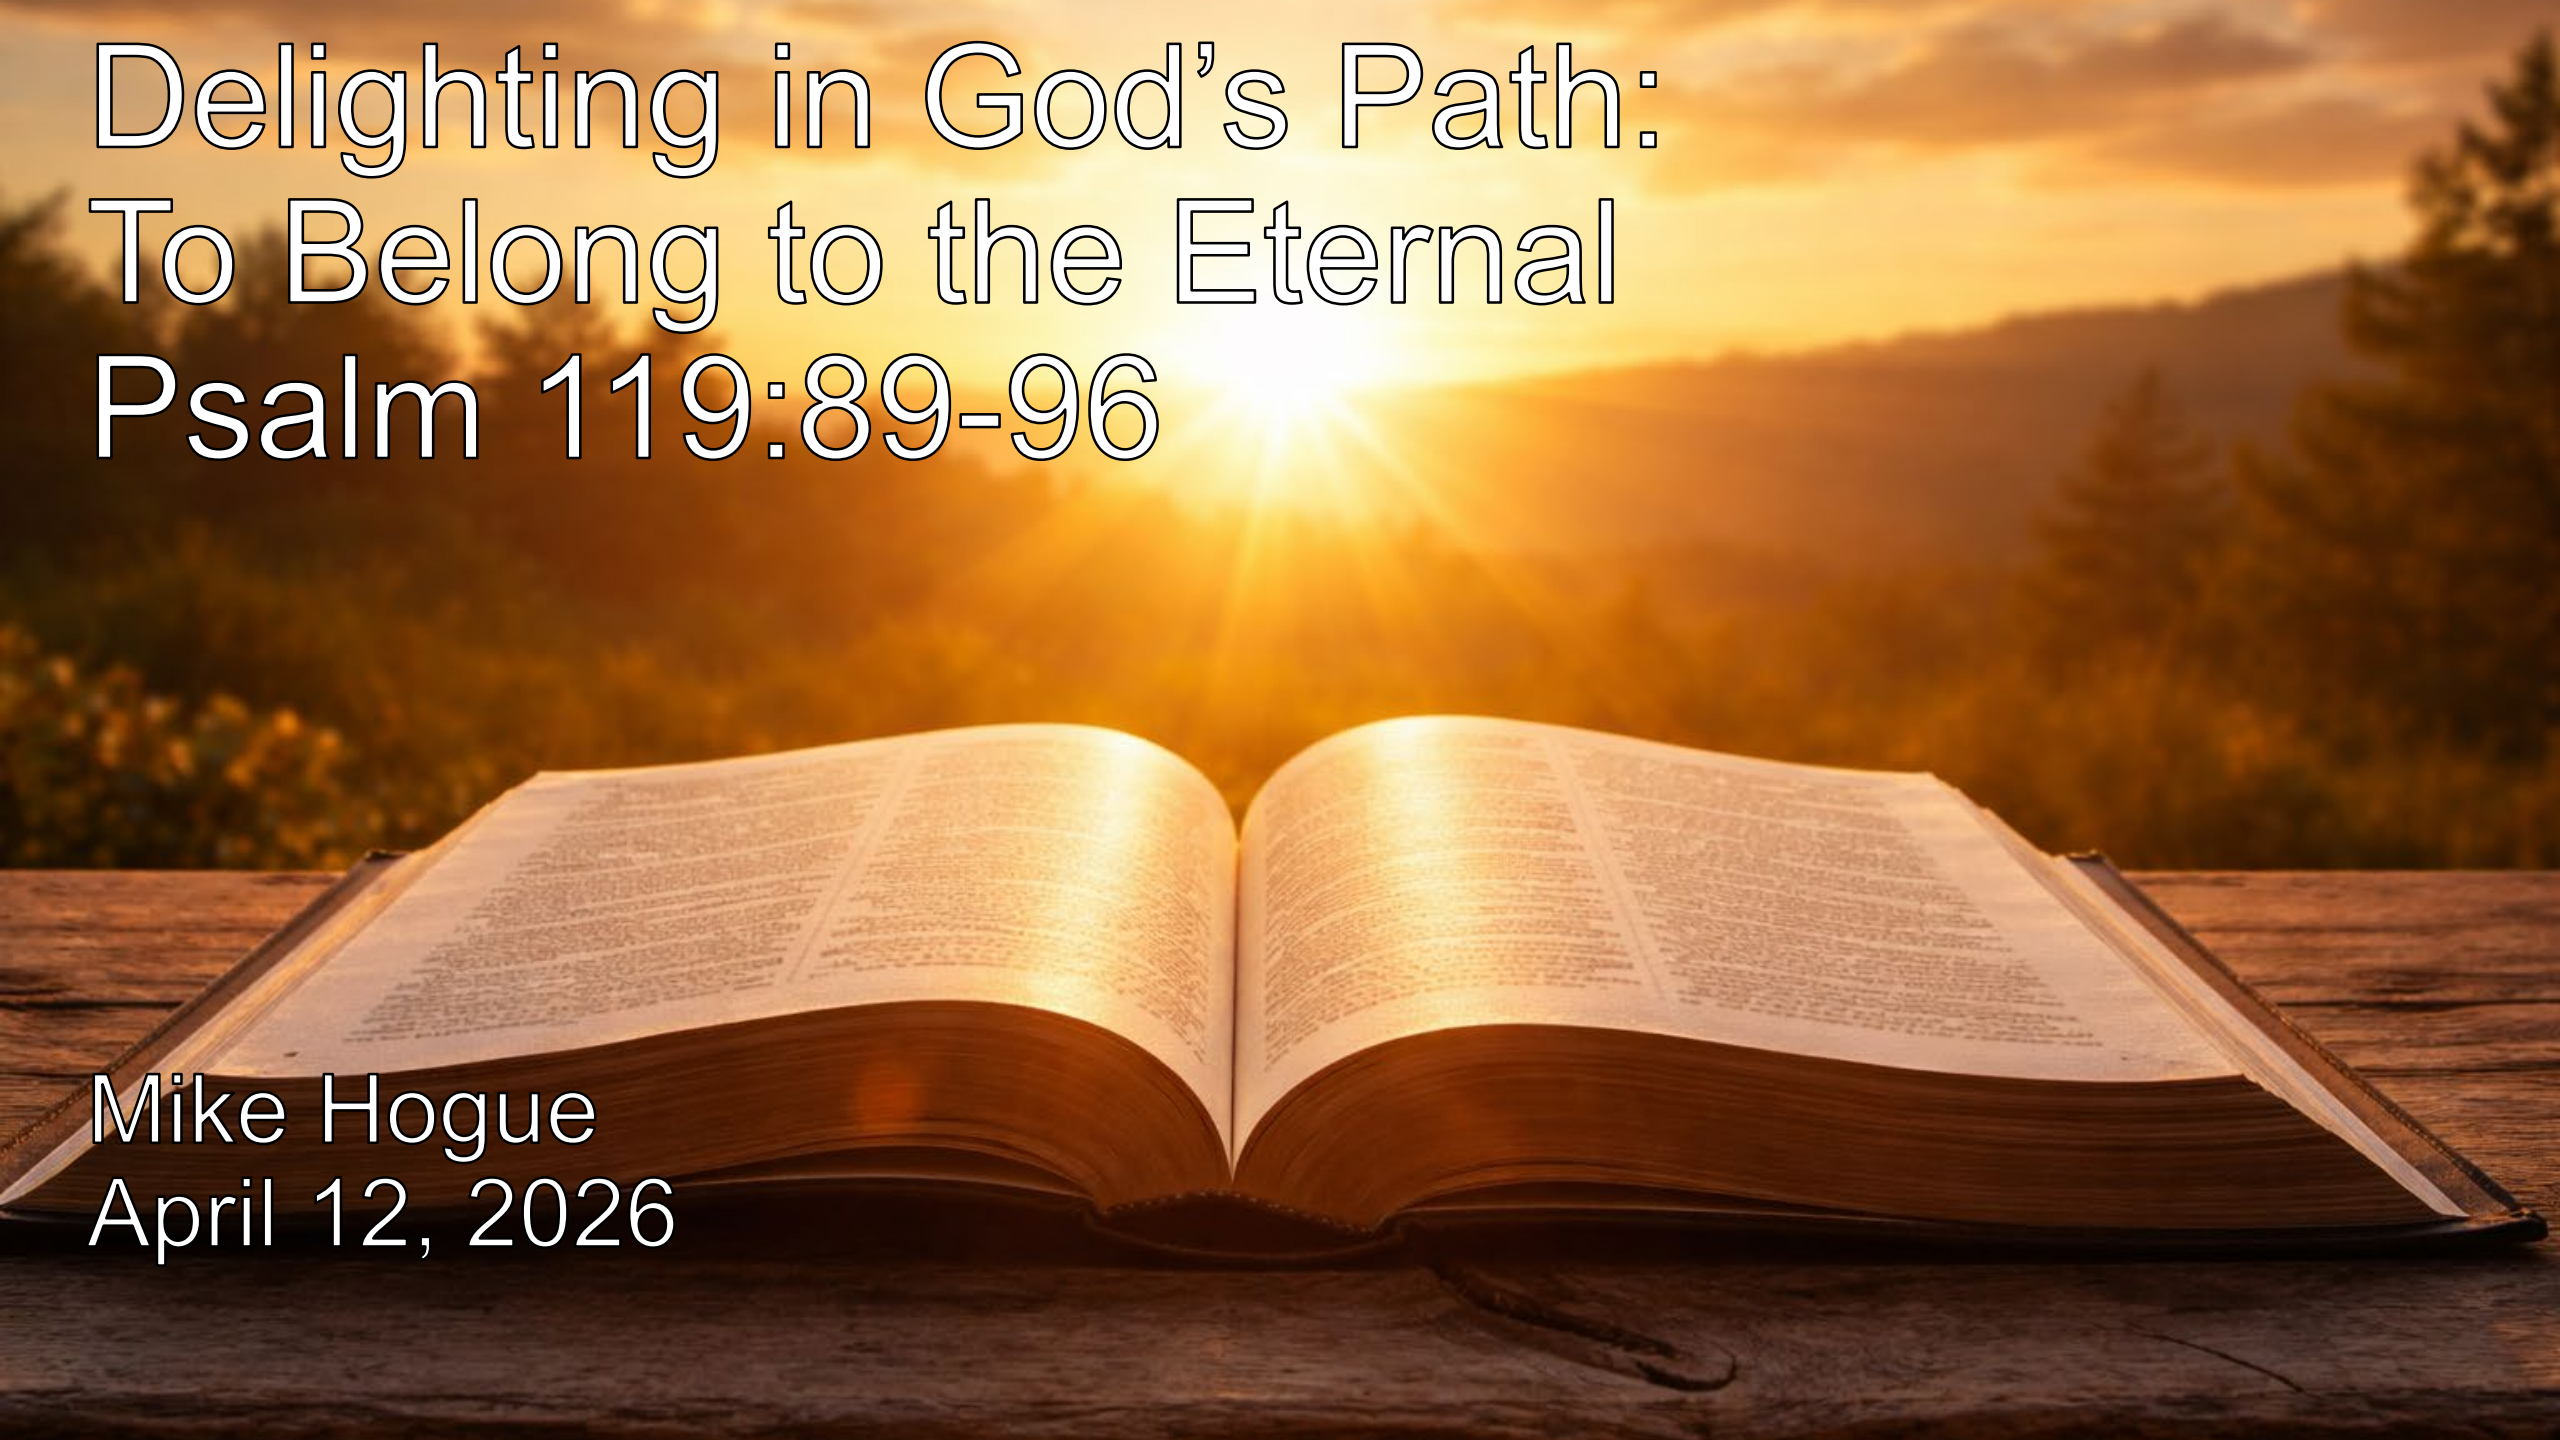

<sup>96</sup>I have seen a limit to all perfection; Your commandment is exceedingly broad.

Psalm 119:89–96 (NASB 2020)

sought Your precepts.

4. _____ on His _____ (119:95)

<sup>90</sup>Your faithfulness continues throughout generations; You established the earth, and it stands.

Psalm 119:89–90 (NASB 2020)

89 Yhwh endures forever;
your word stands in the heavens. [MT]

[or]

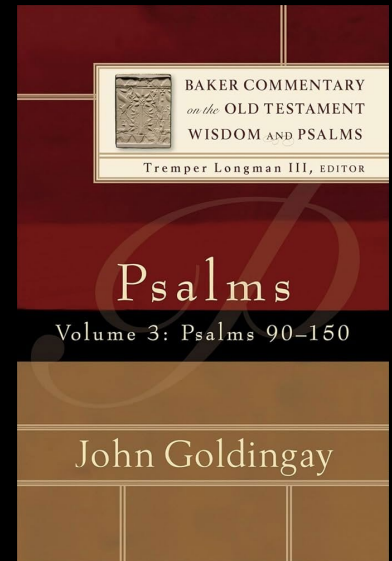

89 Your word endures forever, Yhwh;
it stands in the heavens. [LXX, Jerome, Tg]

<sup>89</sup>Our LORD, you are eternal! Your word will last as long as the heavens.

Psalm 119:89 (CEV)

Either way, the second colon gives precision to the statement in the first, even while the statement in the first undergirds that in the second. Yhwh's word is personified as something that has taken its stand for a purpose, in the heavens. It is therefore in a position to exercise authority on earth.

<sup>90</sup>Your faithfulness continues throughout generations; You established the earth, and it stands.

<sup>19</sup>And the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying, <sup>20</sup>“This is what the LORD says: ‘If you can break My covenant for the day and My covenant for the night, so that day and night do not occur at their proper time, <sup>21</sup>then My covenant with David My servant may also be broken, so that he will not have a son to reign on his throne, and with the Levitical priests, My ministers.

Lamentations 3:22–23 (NASB 2020)

<sup>6</sup>“For I, the LORD, do not change;
therefore you, the sons of Jacob,

<sup>18</sup>so that by two unchangeable things in which it is impossible for God to lie, we who have taken refuge would have strong encouragement to hold firmly to the hope set before us. <sup>19</sup>This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, a hope both sure and reliable and one which enters within the veil, <sup>20</sup>where Jesus has entered as a forerunner for us, having become a high priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.

dread of evil.”

Proverbs 1:33 (NASB 2020)

<sup>27</sup>Only conduct yourselves in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that whether I come and see you or remain absent, I will hear about you that you are standing firm in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel; <sup>28</sup>and in no way alarmed by your opponents—which is a sign of destruction for them, but of salvation for you, and this too, from God.

Philippians 1:27–28 (NASB 2020)

<sup>18</sup>“If the world hates you, you know that it has hated Me before it hated you. <sup>19</sup>If you were of the world, the world would love you as its own; but because you are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, because of this the world hates you. <sup>20</sup>Remember the word that I said to you, ‘A slave is not greater than his master.’ If they persecuted Me, they will persecute you as well; if they followed My word, they will follow yours also.

<sup>4</sup>“Now I say to you, My friends, do not be afraid of those who kill the body, and after that have nothing more that they can do.

Luke 12:4–5 (NASB 2020)

<sup>27</sup>My sheep listen to My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me; <sup>28</sup>and I give them eternal life, and they will never perish; and no one will snatch them out of My hand. <sup>29</sup>My Father, who has given them to Me, is greater than all; and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand. <sup>30</sup>I and the Father are one.”

Romans 8:31-39

<sup>31</sup>What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who is against us?

<sup>32</sup>He who did not spare His own Son, but delivered Him over for us all, how will He not also with Him freely give us all things?

<sup>33</sup>Who will bring charges against God's elect? God is the one who justifies;

<sup>34</sup>who is the one who condemns?
Christ Jesus is He who died, but rather, was raised, who is at the right hand of God, who also intercedes for us.

35 Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Will tribulation, or trouble, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword?

<sup>36</sup>Just as it is written: “For Your sake we are killed all day long; We were regarded as sheep to be slaughtered.”

<sup>37</sup>But in all these things we overwhelmingly conquer through Him who loved us.

<sup>38</sup>For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers,

<sup>39</sup>nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 8:31–39 (NASB 2020)

<sup>96</sup>I have seen a limit to all perfection;
Your commandment is exceedingly broad.

Psalm 119:96 (NASB 2020)

The last verse is the summary statement of this stanza. On the surface it seems unclear...

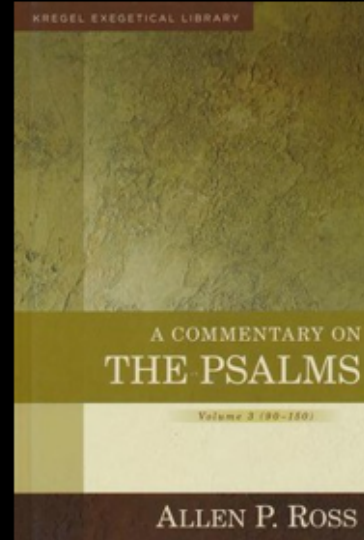

<sup>96</sup>I realize that everything has its limits, but your commands are beyond full comprehension.

Psalm 119:96 (NET 2nd ed.)

<sup>96</sup>I have seen a limit to all perfection,
but Your command is without limit.

Psalm 119:96 (HCSB)

...what he is saying is that all things, however complete they are, however perfected, have their limit—they all come to an eventual end. On the other hand, the commands of God are not limited but boundless (spacious, רַחֲבָה). All earthly perfection is limited—God's word is not. His commands have no limits, because his word is eternal and established.

The doctrine of Scripture's sufficiency, as enunciated in the confessional statements of the magisterial Reformation, teaches that Scripture satisfies four conditions. First, it contains all of the articles one must believe in order to attain salvation. Second, it contains all precepts one must obey in order to live piously before God. Third, it is sufficiently perspicuous to convey this information to an attentive reader; and, fourth, it is self-authenticating.

2 Peter 1:2-4

<sup>2</sup>Grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord, <sup>3</sup>for His divine power has granted to us everything pertaining to life and godliness, through the true knowledge of Him who called us by His own glory and excellence.

<sup>4</sup>Through these He has granted to us His precious and magnificent promises, so that by them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world on account of lust.

2 Peter 1:2–4 (NASB 2020)

<sup>96</sup>I have seen a limit to all perfection;
Your commandment is exceedingly
broad.
