Prophetic Word for 2027 from Rick Renner

The word of the Lord came to me, saying. 2027 will be a year of disruption, opportunity, or loss, depending on how sensitive My people listen to and obey the voice of My Spirit. Absolute attentiveness to My voice is essential, for those who do not carefully listen will be unprepared and will suffer some loss, but for those who listen to and stay in step with My Spirit's voice, they will know what to do, how to respond, and they will miraculously advance in spite of what happens around them.

> Again, the season in the days ahead will be marked by either loss or advancement based on how well you listen and obey. Many will fear due to disruptions that sporadically occur at various times and places, but those who have heard Me and who are rooted in My Word will not be moved.

> Never forget that the willing and obedient eat the good of the land, and I have much good in mind for those who hear and obey the instructions of My Spirit. Open your spiritual ears to listen. Rather than routinely do what you always do, listen to Me, for I will direct you what to do and what steps to take if you will listen to Me, and some of what I instruct you may be different from what you would routinely do, says the Lord.

> Do not allow fearful voices dedicated to propagating fear to affect you in any way. If you stay rooted in Me and obey Me, even as others suffer loss, you will experience a divinely given increase. Those who have listened to me will say, "Aha, this is that which we heard" and they will be empowered to step forward in faith.

> Also be prepared to help others, and remember that I am for you, but it is essential that you keep your spiritual ears open, that you stay in a state of attentiveness, and that you follow My promptings in the days to come, says the Spirit of God.

> Therefore, if I say stop, then stop, but if you hear me say turn this way, or that way, then do as I instruct you, for my desire is to lead you safely and for you to experience My protection and provision, but it is essential that you keep your spiritual ears open.

> Again, I say to you, attentiveness in the days to come is essential, so keep your ears and eyes open to hear and see and pay heed to multiple signals I will give you in the days to come. My Spirit and Word prepare and equip you so that you are well able to move ahead into opportunities because you listened to My voice. But listening is imperative, so again I say, listen, says the Spirit of God.

> Remember that My plans for you are good, but staying in step with My Word and adherence to my directions are essential for you to remain in My protection, provision, and blessing, even in the face of what others would call disruption. If you will listen and watch, you will hear and see and know precisely what to do. What is disruption to one will be opportunity to another, depending on how each attentively listens to and follows My voice.
